

forgetful of the to do list in between those meetings.

Fortunately, this congregation is blessed to have a lot of members and friends willing to do the work of the church better than I used to do. For that, I and the rest of the staff are grateful & very grateful! In so many ways you show that you believe in this church and are willing to give of yourselves to make it a better place. Without your contributions of time and effort there would be far less getting done, but more importantly, this would be a far poorer place. Why?

A newcomer arriving on a Sunday gets greeted, served coffee, provided with information, helped to find the church school if appropriate and handed a hymn book, all because of you. Our senior members and friends get to come together for a lovely lunch now and then, and are given the opportunity to see old friends because of you. A child is made to feel welcome and provided a safe place to play and learn because of you. On Sunday morning there is sound and music and hymns because of you. The money is collected and counted and the bills get paid and the big decisions about the future of our church are made because of you. People in need of care are visited because of you. Our church has a voice in community affairs because of you. Our newsletter gets sent out and our office is staffed in the afternoons because of you. And a hundred repairs and improvements happen around our building and grounds because of you. None of those things and this just begins the list- would happen without you, so thank you.

Without all of that service to one another, this would be a poorer place indeed. Perhaps the most important piece of the volunteer participation at UCE is that by helping out, you get to meet all the other yous who help out. The long time members tell me that some of the friendships that have sustained them for years began here at church while working on some task small or large.

So thank you for giving your time to this community. And thank you for being this community. See you in church!
Brian

President's Message

I have just totalled up the amounts above that Stan Calder tabulated for us. As you can see, you are exceptionally generous and have donated $4691.17 so far to different charities (if I have added it up correctly!). You certainly have created a culture of abundance! Way to go, Unitarians and friends!

When you receive this newsletter, Dorothy and Bernie Keeler, Brian and Teilya Kiely, Annabelle and Maurice Bourgoin, Marion DeShield and I will have just attended the Canadian Unitarian Council conference and AGM at Saint John, New Brunswick at the end of May. Karen Mills will be leading the choir. Brian will be chairing his last AGM as President of the Unitarian Council. I am looking forward to learning lots and spending time with other Canadian Unitarians.

Sincerely,
Sylvia Krogh

Newsletter from Religious Education

Ah, June. The sun, the warmth, the anticipation of the summer. It is a glorious month, full of possibility and anticipation. For many children and their parents, it is the winding down of all that activity of school and extracurricular events. The summer months are there open, free.

In The Religious Experience Program* at this church, we are winding down our church year, much like school. But June is also the planting time, the planning time. It is now that we set in place what will happen in the Fall. We are enticing volunteers to look at becoming members of the Religious Education Committee, the teachers (I will come up with another word for what they do based on Spirit Play). Volunteers are the heart and soul of the Religious Experience for children. They are the ones who make it happen. (*NOTE: You may notice that for RE Program, the words Religious Experience has been substituted for Religious Education. Although this title is not formal, what if we started viewing the children s experience within our church as spiritual questing, not education ? This something we will be discussing in the upcoming workshops.)

In June we are asking you: what are the most important programs at this Church? What is our heart? Where is our heart? Last year we asked you about Our children, our Vision, our Church in the 21st Century. This year we re asking about priorities. What attracts people to this church and makes it a welcoming place, a nourishing, spiritual home? These questions, which we have been searching out in our Long Range Planning Workshops, our Mission Workshops, our Visioning Workshops, now lead us to the question: How Do We Make That Happen? Where Do We Put Our Energy? It is what we DO that shows what our priorities are.

This year we have really worked at understanding that Children s Spiritual Needs are the same as the adults. They need a place and their parents need a place where the great questions of life can be examined. We have been doing that. Now, perhaps, we can be more conscious about HOW we do that.

In the last year in the Religious Experience Program at UCE, we have had a Family Values Workshop to look at what are the values that shape us, that are important to each of us, the ones we would choose to foster and develop in the youngest members of this congregation. We have introduced Spirit Play: a way of wondering, questioning, searching that uses stories and myths and experiential work to open the minds and hearts to the spiritual quest. We have introduced Positive Parenting: a way to treating our young members in accordance with our Unitarian Principles. We have incorporated the children into many more services, ushering, welcoming, participating.

We have had Intergenerational Services which use different ways of speaking to the spiritual needs of ALL members of this congregation without age segregation.

These last few years have been years of great transformation in the Congregation. Transformation is often troubling, even painful. There are those who really don t want things to change. Familiarity can be very comforting. It is normal even in those who recognize the need for change, to feel uncomfortable and reluctant in the face of it.

 Now we re asking you to step forward and embrace some changes. In June we will be having a workshop, a training session for volunteers, teachers, helpers and interested people. We will give you the tools and information which will help you decide what contribution you can make in the RE Program. There will be written descriptions of positions you could choose. You may be excited to find that there are things you can do which will give you MORE spiritual nourishment that you ever expected.***

NOTE: Look for the SIGN UP SHEET to attend this amazing event. You will never regret you came. It may be one of those pivotal moments in your life.

The plans we have for the Fall cannot happen without the willing support of this congregation. To give you a taste:

A Sleep Over Harvest Event for Families
Our Whole Lives Sexuality Course for K1 s
Spirit Play
Unconditional Parenting How to relate with children using the Golden Rule
An Intergenerational Culture Course: Movies,

books, games
Intergenerational Celebrations

Looking forward to working with you to develop a fantastic, vibrant, amazing, MEANINGFUL year.

Rosemary Manning, DRE

Important Info for June

As you look in the calendar you will see PET SUNDAY, FLOWER COMMUNION, and FATHER'S DAY PICNIC. All these services include the children. The Father's Day Picnic is the official end of the RE Program year. There will be ongoing childcare in the Little One's Room all summer, provided by Corinthy Stolee. I will be away most of the summer because of vacation time and overtime compensatory time. However, I am back the last 2 weeks of August for set up and planning purposes.

Thank You Gratitude

Many people have contributed to the RE Program this year. On the RE Committee, we had Joan Childs as the Chair. Her dedication and attention to detail, her ability to focus us on the necessary tasks, was invaluable. Joan: Thank you so much. I wish you could stay on another year. However, the storage room should be named in your honour given the massive sorting and organizing task you accomplished there. Christina Keast is also resigning from the committee. (Look at the sweet faces of Alicia and Sean and you need not wonder what her priorities are.) Thank you for all your contributions and hard work. (But Christina, are we going to be seeing you in the OWL Training?) Scott Harrison is responsible for the cabinets in the Little One's Room. Having your perspective on RE with two wonderful daughters in the Program has been balancing and energizing. Audrey Brooks is a stalwart. Always willing to help, contribute her wisdom and experience, her heart and her spiritual perspective. Bless you, thank you.

Bryce Missall acted as my personal chauffeur. It would have been so hard transporting all those materials and projects I worked on without his help. And he listened to my conversations, especially when I was gearing up for a big service. Thank you Bryce. Guardian angels come in various disguises, and you are a special person.

Tasha Ellis taught the 4-8s in the Fall before she had her baby. She was loved and appreciated. And one student in particular (Odell), told me that she was his favourite teacher.

Alison Grant-Préville was an initiator of the Unconditional Parenting workshop. What a gift you are to this congregation.

Barbara Forbes co-facilitated the Family Values Workshop. Thank you, Barbara. What a wonderful grandmother you are.

There are many others who brought food, helped out at events, hosted participants for the OWL Training, participated in the Mystery Buddy Program and showed love and welcome to the youngest members of this congregation. Thank you all.

Two wonderful teens were our childcare providers: Kate Childs and Meredith Swytink-Binnema. Our babies were in good hands this year. Thank you.

And thank you to all the members of this congregation. Your love and warmth, acceptance and appreciation of the children, your commitment to a RE Program in this Church is what makes this our religious home. THANK YOU ALL.

Sometimes

Does the caterpillar feel pain
As she transforms herself into the butterfly?
Does she feel the loss of
What she once was
As she breaks the chrysalis?
Does she fear the new world she is entering?

Does the rose miss being the bud
Tightly furled

As she opens her petals
Slowly into the warm summer sun?

Do you know when you have changed?
Is it gentle, like climbing a hill
You only see how far you've come
When you look back.
Or is it like
Falling off a cliff
You didn't see the drop ahead
And you don't know if you'll
Fly or you'll fall.

Edmonton Pride Week Parade

Join other Unitarians for the Pride Parade on Sat. June 17th. Just look for our Unitarian and the Westwood banners. The parade begins at 2 pm at 108 street and Jasper and walks to Churchill Square. It is followed by a post parade festival and business fair in Churchill Square. It is always lots of fun and the more the merrier. Come and show your support.

The World Peace Forum will be held in Vancouver from June 23 to 28. Many of the events are being held at the Unitarian Church of Vancouver. Sylvia Krogh will be attending the peace forum. If anyone would like to join Sylvia, please contact her in advance. Thanks.

Summer Worship Services

Have you got a passion or an experience that you'd like to share? A thought or an opinion that you'd like to explore? UCE's lay-led summer worship services provide a great opportunity to lead a discussion, show slides or think out loud about your concept of spirituality or any other topic that relates in any way to one of the UU principles. (We've had summer services ranging from the study of chimpanzee behavior to the contribution made by community theatre in the search for truth and meaning.)

Services can be as structured or informal as you wish. You can choose music, hymns and readings based on the main theme of your service, or leave them out altogether. We sometimes use the metaphor of menu planning when we talk about developing a worship service. During the summer, we can think "barbecue on the patio" with its freedom and informality rather than the more structured "dinner with a roast and the trimmings" served on a winter Sunday. There will be a sign up sheet available starting May 7, with Sundays assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. The Worship Committee is working on a service leaders' handbook to help with planning a service and fitting in key elements like candles of joy and concern, and sharing of abundance.

If you have questions or would like to talk over an idea, please contact either co-chair of the Worship Committee: John Pater (477-7576; e-mail: paterjc@shaw.ca) or Beth Jenkins (458-1794; e-mail: bethj@interbaun.com).

Property Management Committee

We are looking for volunteers to keep the church grounds tidy. This involves picking up garbage that blows into our landscaping or along the fence, or against our building, and periodically using the grass whipper to keep the long grass on our side of the frost fence under control. Please phone Mike Keast (471-0872) or Bernie Keeler (458-1250) to offer your services.

Refurbishing the Chairs

The Board of our Church has requested that the Aesthetics committee serve as the means for the fund raising for the refurbishing of the chairs. We are coordinating with the head of sweat equity, volunteers and the Board.

The fabric will be ordered shortly and the wood finishing requirements will be gathered in late May early June. We have estimated $30 will cover the cost of refurbishing one chair. We invite our members or anyone interested to make donations to meet this need.

The campaign will begin on Mothers Day. Watch for the rising indicator on the thermometer as donations come in! Please make your cheque out to the Unitarian Church of Edmonton, noting in the lower left hand corner chair fund. Your donation can be mailed to the church office attention Aesthetics Committee or given to any member of the committee. It has been suggested that July and August will be a suitable time for the work to be done. Aesthetics Committee Stella Clarke, Shona Wehm, Annabelle Bourgojn, Jean Roth, Bryce Missall

Fun Texas Scramble Church Golf Tourney

Our 2nd Annual Scramble will be on Thursday, June 22nd for 9 holes of golf followed by dinner at Victoria Golf Course. There will be goodie bags and prizes for everyone who participates. The cost for this fun event will be $24 per person for golf and $24 for dinner of either steak or chicken.

If you are not a golfer but interested in learning more about the game, this format is a great introduction to the game. The best ball of the four team members will be used for the next shot and there is no pressure on non-golfers, just fun to be had.

For those who would like to play a practice 9 holes earlier, please let us know as soon as possible and we will attempt to get you out. The course is very busy, but we will call on Tuesday the 20th to attempt to get you out around 2 pm if the Golf course has tee off availability. The price for 18 holes would then be $37 rather than $24.

To register or for more information email Jan at janjimmc@telus.net or call 453-2097 or Stefan at stefan.sicking@vicking.com or phone him at 434-9201 no later than Wednesday, June 14th. Tee off times for the scramble are from 4:12 to 4:52 pm. If you cannot make it for the golf game you are welcome for dinner which will be around 7 pm at a cost of $24 but be sure to let us know by June 14th as well.

Edmonton Interfaith Centre

Some of you have been members of the Edmonton Interfaith Centre in the past; others have yet to take that step. If you believe in the principles of the Centre, perhaps you would consider taking that step this year.

The city as a whole and many of its institutions are becoming much more sensitive to interfaith and multicultural concerns. We think this is a very positive sign. However, in order to respond to all this increased interest and to offer the wide range of programs that people desire, we need a larger core of committed members and friends to draw on. Please give it some thought.

Our next general meeting is the Annual General Meeting, on June 7, 7:30 p.m., at the Riverbend Stake Centre (The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints), 14325 - 53 Avenue.

Innovative Food Program Encourages Community Involvement

If You Eat, You Qualify!
Sharing and Responsibility food program was developed as the fund raising arm of Branches of Life, a non-profit organization started in Edmonton over 20 years ago. The goal of S&R is to allow individuals at all income levels to participate and subsequently benefit. If you eat, you qualify & to benefit.

How it Works: Sharing - The economic buying power of a group! Using combined leverage with hundreds of participants growing monthly, volunteers are able to purchase fresh produce direct from the food producer. Individuals and families are able to join in fund raising efforts by purchasing a food basket worth up to $40 retail. Each basket contains basic foods of nutritious variety with minimal packaging. Whenever possible, foods is purchased from local growers. Each month 2 basket options are available at host locations throughout Edmonton & St.Albert.

Organic ($25) +2 hr volunteer work at place of your choice

Pickup 1 Wednesday of each month

Conventional ($20) +2 hr volunteer work at place of your choice)

Pickup 3 Saturday of each month

Responsibility: Contribute to the community!

S &R participants are asked to contribute 2 hours of volunteer work or perform an act of kindness each month at a place and interest of their choice. In addition, from each basket, $2 is contributed to Edmonton housing Projects. Every first Wednesday(Organic) and third Saturday(Conventional) of each month, the food is sorted and distributed to host sites by volunteers where participants pick of their baskets at a prearranged place and time. Each month the basket contains different items depending on availability.

If you are interested in participating in the S&R food program or setting up a host site in you area Contact: Betty Ann Laporte and arrange for payment, 780 474-5546. Main Host Site Depot: Paragon Soil, 14805 119 Avenue, Edmonton

Branches of Life

Sharing Caring Giving

Branches of Life Society of Canada is a non-denominational, charitable, non-profit organization. Our main objective is to provide housing and support to individuals and families who require secured shelter and support. This Society is not supported by lotteries or bingos. In order to develop and support its housing programs, Sharing & Responsibility Food Program is the organization s main fund raising arm.

Planned Parenthood Needs YOU!

This is a call for someone interested in the promotion of healthy sexuality throughout the life span (Mission statement, PPE). The Board of Planned Parenthood of Edmonton is seeking new members. We have an exciting and challenging couple of years ahead of us - possibly a name change and rebranding, a HUGE event for 2008, and a number of other plans. If you have 6-10 hours per month, a bit of board/committee experience, enthusiasm for life and a willingness to learn and meet these challenges with us - please contact Michelle Van Der Molen at: mavdmolen@shaw.ca or at 477-7576.

Amendment to the Friendship Committee Annual Report

I wish to make an amendment to the Friendship Committee Financial Report submitted to the annual general meeting May 6, 2006. I omitted to indicate in the donations column that a donation of $100 was received from Florence Campbell on behalf of her husband Stan Campbell for the service the committee hosted for his memorial.

Pastors for Peace Caravan to Cuba

The Cuba Edmonton Solidarity Committee and local churches present: Support the Peace Caravan to Cuba-Edmonton Style-Wed. June 14, @7PM in the Edmonton Room, at the Stanley Milner Library. The Notre Dame des Bananes and Raging Grannies will perform socially responsible songs and there will be a main feature Talk by Dick Becker, Noted Activist, and Caravanista, appropriate music and snacks will be available. All donations will go directly to support the 2006-17th Pastors for Peace Friendship Caravan to CUBA. Pastors for Peace is a special ministry of the Inter-religious Foundation for Community Organization (IFCO), and was created in 1988 to pioneer the delivery of humanitarian aid to Latin America and the Caribbean. Many thousands of people have participated since the founding in more than 40 caravans to Mexico and Central America, 16 to Cuba and many delegations and work brigades. Join us to learn about the reality of the country, make a difference to the people there--and to your own life!
$10 donation appreciated. Tickets available at the door or from Sylvia Krogh.

211

Community Connection

What is 211?

211 is an easy to remember telephone number that connects people to a full range of non-emergency social, health and government services in the community. Twenty four hours a day, seven days a week, Certified Information and Referral Specialists answer 211 calls, assess the needs of each caller, and link them to the best available information and services.

Why 211 works

Single access point. 211 provides a single access point to a community's full range of social, health and government services, reducing confusion and frustration for the caller.

Free. 211 is accessible at no cost to callers.

For more information on 211 call Nancy Douglas at The Support Network. Phone: (780) 482-0198

Eliot at Naramata Needs You

Eliot Institute, a UU Summer Camp Program, has once again set up a special fund to invite new families to Eliot Naramata, the UU camp for Unitarians and Universalists, their families and friends. Each of the first 10 new families (minimum one adult and one child or youth) will receive a $200 CAD discount. The camp runs July 1 to 8. Naramata is located on the shores of Lake Okanagan in a charming small town. Harold Rosen will offer his fascinating work on interfaith ethics in our troubled world. The children have their own morning program, and there are plenty of intergenerational activities in the afternoon. Other financial assistance can be available to those in need.

Make Naramata part of your summer plans. It's not too late, but register soon! Visit www.eliotinstitute.org for registration forms and other information. Or call 206-374-2497.
