

April 1

Fresh Starts

Chorealis

The lengthening of the days and the greening of the trees can inspire us to turn over a new leaf. Just like seeds, we need help from other sources - nourishment, water, sunlight - to grow. Sometimes, we may also find ourselves in what seem like less than ideal growing conditions. What do you need to transform and "bloom where you're planted?"

April 8

From Man to God

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

A week late, I will look at the Easter story and how Jesus went was transformed from god-like to God.

April 15

Transforming the Spirit

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

Most of us want to make some changes, to have our lives be a little different than they are. Effective change does not come from a wish or an idea, but starts with transforming ourselves from within.

April 22

Aging

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

Well it's the one form of transformation that any of us lucky enough to live so long experience! It brings both challenge and gift.

April 29

Transforming the World

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

As citizens of the world we each have an obligation to make things better if we can. How can we do that without losing ourselves?

Ministerial Musings

Speaking of change and transformation - April's theme - it's been quite a six week whirlwind for our family. We put our house on the market on January 29, and sold it the same day.

As I write this (March 20th) I am looking forward with the usual mix of emotions towards moving house tomorrow. We have had our new home for about 10 days and with the help of many hands have done some renovating and painting...along with packing and prepping. It's ready and a few of the fragile items are already there. Frankly, we are aching and exhausted.

In the midst of this period of work and preparation, we learned of the need to help our son Hunter find a group home. It was a difficult decision to make, of course, and we will both likely feel the weight of it until we become convinced that Hunter is well and truly settled. We thought that if we were lucky, he might move by the end of April.

But in the midst of our packing and prepping the good people at Entrust found a home (Hunter will be the first resident) rented it, made some modifications and let us know that he can move in ...tomorrow! Last night, instead of emptying our house, we were setting up his. Yikes! But it's a really nice house. I think it will work out. Of course, Erica frequently notes that I see the world through rose coloured glasses. We will see.

There are times in all of our lives when all you can do is put your head down and ask, "What's next on the list?" If we are lucky these times are few and far between. Right now it's our turn, but we will get through it.

If I have seemed a little out of it, or if I have dropped the ball in some way, I do apologize. I know some things, important things, have fallen pretty far down the "What's next?" list. But that's the nature of change sometimes. And judging from the kindness and understanding this community has been showing us, well, you get it.

See you in church,

Brian

Some Final Truths

April 2018

April brings to a close our canvass for 2018. There are a few pledges left to collect and then we have to create an estimate of how much income we will have for the coming year. That estimate is used to create our church budget. After my 10 years of doing canvass I've got a pretty good idea of how our canvass total translates to income. You will get to hear my estimate at the Annual General Meeting on May 6th.

This year's canvass did not start with the mailed-out letter to previous donors; this year we used email instead of a mailed letter. It was easier to send an email, but the response wasn't as good as past years. By March 15th we only had 35 pledges which is half of what we have had by that date in previous years. By the time you read this newsletter I will have sent a number of follow-up emails to try and get a higher percentage of pledges.

We all need to submit a pledge. If you are a member you need to pledge every year. Even if you have ongoing donations set up we would like to get a pledge from you. By pledging you help us create our church budget for the next year. The more complete our pledges, the more confidence we have in creating our budget. The worst thing that can happen is that we don't get enough pledges and then have to cut our budgets.

There is still some time left to pledge. If you haven't pledged yet, then please send in a pledge as soon as you get this newsletter. There are pledge forms online, and in the church.

For those that have already pledged; thank you for supporting our search for truth at UCE!

UCE Annual General Meeting – Celebrating Our Community

UCE is humming with activities and ideas. It's time to celebrate that and plan for more at our AGM on Sunday, May 6 at 11:45 am. At the meeting, we'll:

- hear about the work of staff and committees
- decide how we want to allocate our budget
- elect new members to the Board, the nominating and ministerial relations committees

The decisions from this meeting will affect all of us, so it is important to have all our voices as part of the discussions and decision making.

Everyone is encouraged to attend, and anyone who has been a member for 60 days may vote.

A light lunch and childcare will be available.

If you have any questions about the annual general meeting, please speak to a board member.

See you on Sunday, May 6!

Candidates List, Annual General Meeting May 6

The following church members have offered to stand for positions on the UCE board and two committees, nominating and ministerial relations. Our thanks to them for agreeing to keep our congregation strong. Elections will be at the annual congregational meeting on Sunday, May 6, when nominations can be made from the floor.

Vice-President: Karen Bilida

Treasurer: Doug Eastwell (completing one year of a two-year term)

Campus Ministry Notes ...

Dear members & friends of Westwood and UCE,

Thank you for your support, for the two years I have spent in Campus Ministry at the University of Alberta. It has been a meaningful experience - full of interesting opportunities, diverse humans, and both personal and professional growth.

After a long period of discernment, I have chosen to resign the position at the end of this school year. While the University is rich with needs and opportunities, I don't feel I can effectively serve the position in the hours I have available.

Thank you for your faith in me. I am grateful for the time spent and connections made.

Sincerely, Reverend Anne Barker

The Right to a Healthy Environment?

The Social Justice Working Group plans to support an initiative that would enshrine the right to a healthy environment in the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms. "Support," in this case, would mean sending a letter to City Council to encourage them to take the actions necessary to proclaim Edmonton's support for this initiative. According to the Blue Dot Campaign, over 160 municipalities have already declared their support and 110 countries have included this right in their constitution. For details, see the following sites:

<http://healthyveg.org/the-plan/>

<http://bluedot.ca/about/>

<https://www.ecojustice.ca/case/right-to-a-healthy-environment/>

<http://elc.ab.ca/environmental-bill-rights-action-today-albertans-tomorrow/>

The Social Justice Working Group can support this initiative on its own, but the effect might be greater if the congregation supported it. Such a decision on the part of the congregation would require a motion, discussion, and vote at the Annual General Meeting in May. Should we bring this item to the AGM? If you have an opinion one way or the other, please contact Marilyn Gaa (marilyngaa@telusplanet.net) or Sylvia Krogh (skrogh@shaw.ca) soon. We look forward to your input.

Volunteer Opportunities Casino Help

Our biannual Casino fundraising event is fast approaching! Every 2 years we are given the opportunity to work a Casino in which the church earns $70-80K for our efforts. This year the funds are especially significant as the church is planning to use the funds to pay off the last of our building debt!

However we cannot do it without you. Please donate your time, to this very important fundraiser.

The Casino will be at Casino Edmonton on Argyll Rd on June 12/13th.

If you have worked a Casino before you know how fun they are. If not, please do not feel intimidated by the position names - General Manager, Banker etc. All positions are VERY easily done by all and a paid Advisor is on site with us the entire time, to walk all our volunteers through their duties.

You can sign up very easily for your desired shift at www.volunteersignup.org/3wQJR

If transportation is an issue (we can help!) or if you have any questions, please contact Brandie Moller-Reid, our Casino Coordinator at brmoller@hotmail.com.

Want an easy way to volunteer? About ½ hour of time on your own schedule! We need some people to post on Kijiji. You do not respond to any of the responses, you just have to post wording and pictures that are provided to you. Training is provided. Please contact Karen Bilida @ Unitarian.Edmonton@yahoo.ca

Volunteer Without Meetings for the Food Bank

Please sign up in the UCE lobby.

Maintenance

The property management volunteers would like to invite anyone to come on in and help out around the church on Wednesdays from about 10 am till 2 pm. Any skill level is welcome and coffee and tea is supplied. Occasionally we even have a lunch supplied.

We also need someone to volunteer to show up before Sunday service and make sure all the entry ways and emergency exits are cleared. If you are able to do one Sunday a month or even one Sunday over the winter please let us know, mikekeast@shaw.ca.

The Unitarian Church of Edmonton is a liberal, multi-generational, religious community. We celebrate a rich mosaic of free-thinking, spiritually-questing individuals joined in common support and action. We welcome diversity including diversity of beliefs from divine believers to humanists, from pagans to atheists and agnostics. We believe in the compassion of the human heart, the warmth of community, the pursuit of justice and the search of meaning in our lives.

We gather with gratitude on traditional Cree lands that are now a part of Treaty Six and shared by many nations. A treaty is an inheritance, a responsibility and a relationship. May we be good neighbours to one another, good stewards to our planet and good ancestors to our children.
