“Chalica”

UCE Children and Youth

The RE & Youth will be hosting a service and giving you a crash course into this unique UU holiday! We will be singing Chalica songs and exploring our UU faith. Chalica information books will be available by donation. Chalica is a uniquely UU holiday dreamed up by Darlene Marshall in 2005. So, what is Chalica and when it is celebrated? Chalica is a week long holiday, during which we honor and celebrate our seven Unitarian Universalist principles. Those who celebrate Chalica spend each day reflecting on one principle—putting it into practice through their words and deeds. <https://www.facebook.com/events/146566299402163/>

Chorealis

Amidst the glitter, glam and bright lights of the holiday season, what lessons might the dark tranquility of the moon hold for us? Join us for a luminous mixture of carols and lessons with a lunar theme. Congregational Conversation after the service. (See inside). <https://www.facebook.com/events/296510987530284/>

“Mitten Tree Service”

Rev. Brian J. Kiely, Lauren Kay, DRE

Join us for our annual family Christmas celebration of stories and readings and Carols. If there has been a new baby in your family or extended family we will light special candles to welcome them to the world. The highpoint, as always, will be decorating the Mitten Tree with scarves, socks, hats and mittens. These will be given to the Boyle Street Community Services for distribution to those who really need them. Soup Sunday will follow the service. <https://www.facebook.com/events/354569418326128/>

“Blue Christmas”

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

This annual service is offered for those who have tough times with the Holidays. Not everyone has joyful memories from childhood, while others are mourning losses this year. This is a quiet service of readings, reflection and candle lighting. We make room to touch and honour the pain so many feel in hopes of finding solace if not outright joy. The service is followed by a free supper of homemade soups, pies and bread served up by willing volunteers. Everyone is most welcome. <https://www.facebook.com/events/384637545313047/>

“Christmas Eve Celebration”

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

It is important to have the church open every Sunday morning for those who need it, so we will offer two similar, simple Christmas Eve services, joyful reflections on the theme of “Gifts of Presence”. <https://www.facebook.com/events/729175273958817/>

"Reflections on 2017"

John Pater

Join me in a reflective service where we'll look back at the top stories of our lives in 2017. We'll share the personal, the cultural (books, movies, music) and the news stories that impacted our lives in the year past. <https://www.facebook.com/events/503944079982741/>

Ministerial Musings

"Ms. Irreverence" performed at the October Dragging Youth Series.

It's been quite an autumn around the Church, hasn't it? Our child and youth programs have been growing. There have been lots of new faces and an uptick in Sunday attendance. Our building is hopping with four choirs and an orchestra using it as well as several chefs making use of our kitchen. There is a concert soon with our own Erin Van Der Molen-Pater and friends. We had a successful adult program series on Living and Dying. Adult OWL has started again. There have been pot-lucks and parties and a Youth sleepover. Dragging Youth, a co-sponsored event, grows stronger each month. Religion on Tap gets a steady turn out each month. There have been clothing drives and the Child Haven dinner. We are looking forward to a Seniors' Christmas Lunch in early December, always a popular event. Chalice Circles are forming for new participants again, Social Justice has been active and we have our Soup Sundays. Our media presence is being extended by a revitalized Communications Committee helping support all of these events.

In October, several of us attended the CUC Regional Fall Gathering in Calgary. The keynote speaker, Rev. John Pentland spoke on what change happened in the United Church he serves that grew from 60 to 600 members. The Board has been reviewing his book "Fishing Tips" and are starting to implement some of his ideas like the three minute "Community Conversations" with one another in the service. More will come, though I take comfort in noting we are already doing some of the things he suggests. We are not a congregation afraid of change, though we often like to do it slowly.

All of which is a long and drawn way to say things have been going well around here. There is new energy and new people becoming involved in leadership. Are we thriving yet? Matter of opinion, I guess, but we certainly are not dwindling. I think we are on the right track.

Here's hoping that you have a lovely and relaxing holiday season and that we all regather willing to keep the energy and the light growing.

See you in Church,
Brian

Join us for a Congregational Conversation on December 10th

In November we experimented with having the children in for the majority of the service. Now it's time to evaluate. The goal was to have the children feel more part of the Sunday morning community, to give RE leaders a chance to attend more of the service, and a chance for families to share Unitarian experience.

What did you think? We would like to hear what worked, what didn't and we want to hear from everyone with a viewpoint. We will meet in the Sanctuary right after service. Grab a coffee and come back in to chat.

Religion on Tap

December is a month that starts busy and gets busier. So Brian has decided to make our monthly pub night program “Religion on Tap” earlier, on Tuesday, December 12th. Stop by if you are not too overwhelmed for an early holiday cup of cheer. Metro Billiards, 10250 106 St starting at 7 p.m. <https://www.facebook.com/events/329972630813902/>

Board Update

Your UCE Board met on November 8, 2017. Our Rental Committee has formulated a new Rental Schedule for consistency of rental rates. The board is discussing Rev. Dr. John Pentland’s book “Fishing Tips” for ideas to keep our congregation vibrant. If you would like to speak on a particular topic, kindly contact President Karen Mills one week prior to the meeting. The next board meeting will take place on December 13, 2017 a 7:15 p.m.

Treasurer’s Report

I want everybody to know how important our next casino is to the finances of this church. With the casino money we will get next fall, we can pay off our debt. And we really have no other way to do that.

We paid $1.4 million to buy and renovate our building back in 2004. We have been steadily whittling down that debt ever since, mainly by working casinos. We have $38,000 of the debt left to pay. The casino of June 12 and 13, 2018 will do that.

We will also have money left over to help pay for the operation of UCE – minister, RE, choir, the heating bill, etc. It costs about $315,000 to run UCE every year. Donations from members cover slightly more than half that cost; rental income covers much of the rest. But casino money is also very important.

I urge church members to mark the casino dates on their calendar and plan to volunteer, particularly if you haven’t done it before. It’s a very important way you can contribute to the future of UCE. The work is simple; the volunteers are fun; and you get free food. I will be there, as usual.

Introducing: The Travelling Chalice Kit!

Each week we light a chalice in church, but few of us do it at home, even for special events. The Travelling Chalice is a new idea for us where families (of one or more) can borrow our kit for a week and explore what the chalice means to them. We will have a sign-up sheet on the credenza so you can book it ahead, or if no one has taken it, note that you have it and it's your for a week.

What's involved? Inside the box you will find a chalice and wax or electric candle (your choice), a lovely traditional Transylvanian Unitarian cloth, a book of meditations, a book with some longer essays on our Principles and a blank journal. You may want to use the chalice during meals or at bedtime or in the morning. You can choose a reading in the kit or devise something of your own. There are no rules.

In the journal we would encourage you to record how you used the chalice, perhaps write down a reading you found or simply add it to the box. You can sign your entry or not. And if you are one of the first users, you will find a couple of entries as the staff has been taking it out for a test drive. Enjoy!

Brian, Lauren, Janet

Amnesty International's Write for Rights Campaign

On December 3rd, before and after the church service: The Social Justice Committee is again sponsoring Amnesty International's Write for Rights Campaign. Once you have read the brief profile, your letter is quickly written. Experience shows that these letter campaigns are effective and have saved lives.

Work includes public education, support, bursaries, trauma recovery and emergency poverty relief. Your donation makes a difference in this important area.

History Project Update-Keep your eyes out

Over the next weeks we will be featuring profiles on Sylvia Krogh and Barbara Forbes. Learn more about these long standing members of our congregation on the web site and on the bulletin board by the credenza.

Religious Exploration and Youth

Wow! The youth had a wonderful sleepover on the 18th. Our thanks to Karen Stevenson for hosting an expressive arts workshop. The youth explore their inherent worth and dignity via art and movement. It was a great time. We spent the rest of the evening making dinner together; playing games such as stand up, Ouija, Dungeons & Dragons, and theater improv freeze tag. UU youth bonding and growth was fun for all, even Maria and Lauren.

Unitarian Universalist minister John Morgan said:

People come into our communities looking for a place to belong (intimacy) and a place to seek meaning (ultimacy) about living and dying and the spaces between.

Chalice groups provide a unique opportunity for community members to explore deeper meaning and belonging by:

- Exploration and experimentation with deep personal reflection and listening
- Build a sense of community among the participants
- Create a climate of mutual respect and understanding
- Strengthen the shared experience of being a Unitarian Universalist.
- Fun!

If you would like to join a chalice group for the New Year, sign up in the foyer. There will be a post-church potluck lunch on Sunday January 14th for all interested. We will help form the small groups of 6-10 that will then meet regularly until June. Please sign up by Dec 17. Please contact Scott Harrison at talktoscott@live.ca for more information.

HEART TO HEART

 The indefatigable Lilas Lysne, who is recovering from another surgery, was all dressed up and ready to entertain at bridge when visited at the Grandview Care Centre. How does this elder mentor do that?

 Liz Cloutier fell and broke her collarbone, and is therefore limited from her many activities, which knowing Liz, must be frustrating - Sending hugs from all your friends at UCE, Liz!

 The Ante Meridiem Choir will be singing at Canterbury Court Senior's Residence, where Maurice Bourgoin's wife Annabelle resides, as do Gordon Ritchie's Aunt Wilma and Uncle Fred. Maurice is a member of the choir, as are 4 other UCE members.

 Our Minister, Brian Kiely, had his debut as Ms. Irreverence at the Dragging Youth event in October. His three daughters performed as well to a good crowd including many UCE folks. The next event will be December 16th:

Dragging Christmas: Santa Claus Is Coming to Town

 Sending greetings to all those who are experiencing the limitations of winter; it takes some time to adjust to the changes in weather. Go slowly, dress warm, walk with a friend, ask for help when you need it, we are all family here!

 If you notice that someone is not at church for a while, you might find time to give them a call and have a phone visit, and maybe even a virtual hug!

Come – enjoy ritual & refreshments, story & song! The winter solstice is the shortest day and longest night of the year, & marks the return of light; from the deepest darkness, we rejoice to see the days begin to lengthen.

Westwood Unitarian has held a winter solstice celebration every year for 30 years. This is the 10th consecutive year we have held Winter Solstice in the beautiful ground floor atrium at City Hall. It's also the 10th consecutive year the celebration has been led by Reverend Anne.

Come early to be sure of a good seat. This event is very popular. The service lasts from 7:00 until 8:00, & the celebration continues until 9:00 pm. (We are very pleased to have Bliss Baked Goods again this year!)

Westwood fully sponsors this event; each year, all money collected in a free will offering goes to a designated charity. This year, Suit Yourself is the recipient. Suit Yourself is a volunteer driven charity which distributes donated clothing to women in need who are entering or returning to a professional workplace.

Famous UU's

December feels like the perfect time to explore the author of “A Christmas Carol”, Charles Dickens (7 February 1812 – 9 June 1870).

“No one is useless in this world who lightens the burdens of another.”

“Have a heart that never hardens, and a temper that never tires, and a touch that never hurts.”

“I will honor Christmas in my heart, and try to keep it all the year.”

There are many fascinating articles written about Charles Dickens and his associations with Unitarianism. Here are excerpts from a few:

“Charles Dickens and the notion of evil” By Susan Jhirad in UU World

“As Unitarian Universalists, we have long debated the religious beliefs of Charles Dickens and how they align with our own. We know that he was born and raised an Anglican, and in 1843, after a visit to America, became a Unitarian. In a letter to his American Unitarian friend Cornelius Felton, he wrote: “I have carried into an effect an old idea of mine and joined the Unitarians, who would do something for human improvement if they could, and practice charity and toleration.”

“Ebenezer Scrooge’s conversion - Charles Dickens’s novels reflect the central ideas of nineteenth-century Unitarianism” in UU World by Micheal Timko

“Charles Dickens’s famous novel about Ebenezer Scrooge changed the celebration of Christmas into what we think of as traditional today: an occasion to give to those less fortunate and to gather family and friends around laden dinner tables and Christmas trees filled with lights, decorations, and toys. Written shortly after Dickens joined a Unitarian church, A Christmas Carol became his most famous novel—and the one most representative of his Unitarian beliefs. “

From The Canadian Unitarian Council’s website:

“He was an admirer of William Ellery Channing and Ralph Waldo Emerson, and his views on liberal, tolerant, non-sectarian religion, the basic goodness in people, the ‘gospel of the second chance,’ and the desperate need for radical social reform were those of leading British Unitarians of his time.

“The truth of life is love,” he wrote, “and all which negatives love is false.”
