The Edmonton Unitarian: January 2019, Vol 60.1

January Theme: World Religions: Buddhism

January 6

“The Healing Power of Music”

Chorealis

Music has a way of touching our souls in a deep and subtle way. No other form of creativity has the lasting power of music because it speaks to us in so many different ways – healing us, inspiring us, moving us and uniting us. As French Poet Victor Hugo said, “Music expresses that which cannot be said and on which it is impossible to be silent.” Special guest Alison Grant - Preville, flute.

Children’s Focus: “Who is Buddha”

January 13

“Awakened Prince”

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

This month we will look at the religion of Buddhism in some depth. This week we will start with the man who became the Buddha. The children will be with us for the first part of the service.

Children’s Focus: All ages service

January 20

“Spreading Enlightenment”

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

The Buddha spent the five decades following his Enlightenment spreading the word of his inner peace and devising a path for his followers. Today we will delve into some of the elements of his message.

Children’s Focus: “The Peaceful Mind and Meditation for Young People”

January 27

“Buddhist Influences on Unitarianism”

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

From the 19th century onward, Buddhism played a significant role in the development of some parts of Unitarianism. Indeed, we played a small role in bringing that faith to North America.

Children’s Focus: “All People Are Connected”

MINISTERIAL MUSINGS

Stuff always happens over the holidays. It might just be the nature of families (for better or worse), or some piece of equipment breaking down just minutes after the stores close for three days. You know what I mean.

Many years ago I was living in Toronto and was planning to drive home to Montreal on Christmas morning. Five-hour drive. No problem. Except there was an uncharacteristic 30 below cold snap. The battery on my 12-year-old Mercury Meteor was as dead as Jacob Marley. I tried to unscrew it and bring it in to warm up when the terminal snapped right off. I wasn't going anywhere.

It worked out okay thanks to the kindness of strangers, but my point is stuff happens.

It especially happens when we try to make the world conform to our expectations, when we anticipate that the holidays of the season will go just so. Sometimes the expectation of 'just so' is perfection. Sometimes the expectation is that overwrought disasters are coming. Most of us probably expect a bit of both.

Maybe the way to manage these days is to let go of expectations. Perhaps the best way through is to seek the enjoyable when it's available, avoid the potentially disastrous as much as possible and just look for a middle path. Let's just try our best and let stuff happen as it will.

See you in Church
Brian

Mitten Tree 2018 was another fantastic success!
UCE collected 169 pairs of socks, 54 gloves, 92 hats, 22 scarves, and some underwear. All these wonderful donations have been given to the Boyle Street Community Services.

INVITATION TO UCE FRIENDS

If you are receiving our monthly Newsletter and are not yet a member of the church, but would like to be, please contact our Church Administrator, Janet Polkovsky by phone: (780) 454-8073, email at chadmin@uce.ca or on our website to start the process of becoming a fully-fledged member of our very vibrant community.

We look forward to welcoming you.

We are all on a journey these days. Some of us are working our way through our working lives, family lives, personal lives, and/or our retirement lives. But the thing we have in common on this journey is our connection with the Unitarian Church of Edmonton. That connection means that we do not need to travel our journey alone. We can come together in this church and see how others are handling their journey and get comfort, inspiration, and support for our own journeys.

But not all journeys are easy. When we look at the news we see the caravan on their journey from Honduras full of people forced from their homes by economic desperation. Closer to home is the family of refugees from Syria; sponsored by Edmonton Unitarians as they fled from their damaged country. How would you react to having your home shot up? Where would you go? Who would take you in on a journey to the unknown?

The Unitarian Church of Edmonton has provided support for refugee families and people at risk for years. Whether it is the direct sponsorship of refugees from abroad, LGBTQ rights, support for local charities, providing food for those in need, or participation in social action to make the world a fairer place, UCE supports the journeys of both our members and the wider community. That journey is worth supporting.

Canvass is our annual call for support to the members and friends of this church. We ask that everyone submit a pledge by the end of March so that we can plan UCE's journey for the next year. You can find more information in the Canvass section of the UCE web page at <http://www.uce.ca/canvass/>. You can also find an online pledge form here <http://www.uce.ca/canvass/pledge.html>.

Please support our journey and pledge to the work of your church.

Andrew Mills
Canvass Chair

Religion on Tap is our monthly social/theological chat. It will be Tuesday, January 22nd at 7 p.m. at Metro Billiards, 10250 106 St. These are informal gatherings where we socialize (anywhere from 3 to about 15 people) and have a religiously themed discussion that runs from 5 minutes to an hour depending on interest. Brian Kiely leads and all are welcome. Everyone (over 18) is welcome.

BUILDING BIENVENUE

Delicious African inspired food, entertainment, and friends: don't miss out. Rev. ## MONTHLY FUN SUNDAY - CELEBRATE THE SCOTS

Come and celebrate all things Scottish after church on Sunday, Jan. 27, to mark the birthday of poet Robbie Burns. There will be food – shortbread, Scottish candy and even haggis. There will be poems read and songs sung. No whiskey or deep-fried Mars bars, but good food and good company. Come and take a cup of kindness with us.

YOUNG ADULTS AND ADULTS YOUNG AT HEART

Bring a board game or card game or puzzle to play with others. There will be some games available, and if games aren't your thing, feel welcome to bring your own project/craft to work on. Maybe even teach someone some of your techniques! Watch for dates to be announced!

RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION

Mystery Buddies

Pen pals between the generations - Mystery Buddies will start on January 19th with a Reveal Party in the Keeler Hall after service on February 9th. It will have a small twist. All adults will receive a package with everything you need to send your buddy a great letter and there will be a short description about them. This package will be available on the 12th of January. The children will be doing the letters as their activity for those weeks so no one is running around last minute to try and get one in. Sign-up sheet is on the credenza. The deadline to sign-up is January 10th.

Youth Gatherings

December's gathering will be a New Year's Party on Saturday December 29th with the option for the youth to have a sleepover that night. January's Event is yet to be planned but I will be advocating for a field trip to a Buddhist Temple.

Teacher Needed

We have an opening for a teacher for our Pathfinders group. This is a paid position. Curriculum is provided. All supplies for all classes are prepared and supplied by DRE prior to each Sunday's class. Teaching is a wonderful way to increase your own knowledge of and connection to Unitarian Universalism and is one of the greatest gifts you can give to the congregation and our children. If you are interested, please contact Will at ucekids@uce.ca or in person on Sunday mornings

Volunteers Needed

Do you have a Sunday to two that you could spare? Volunteer to be a second in the Sunday Religious Exploration Classes. (The CUC safe practices states that there should always be two adults with any group of children or youth) Come make a difference! Signup sheet is on the credenza.

Another way to volunteer is to sign up to provide snacks for the classroom. Snacks can be simple things like carrot and celery sticks or assorted fruit and maybe some kind of no-sugar juice. Things to stay away are sugary or really processed food like cookies or chips. Also for allergy alert we ask for things with gluten, nuts, and dairy to be avoided or kept separately and labelled. There is a sign-up sheet on the credenza in the lobby. If you would like to contribute but may not be able to bring a snack on one particular day you could give us a small cash donation and we can use it to up the stuff for snack.

Youth Together in Caring

Afternoon youth drop-in will be a regular weekly event on Fridays from 4:30 to 6:30. It is planned to be a youth safe space that will be youth lead but will conform to safe practices. We desire to have a Peer support element to it. <https://www.facebook.com/events/285400582161572/>

SHARING OUR ABUNDANCE

The Unitarian Church of Edmonton donates half of the loose change collected each month to a different charity.

For the month of January, we will share with Change for Children, a local charity that partners with communities in Latin America and Africa who are struggling with poverty to improve access to basic needs, healthcare and education.

From the month of November, UCE donated $600.91 to the CBC Turkey Drive, which works with the Edmonton Food Bank to ensure people in need can enjoy a festive meal.

Turkeys are distributed here at UCE every December during one of the Wednesday Food Bank nights.

Please sign up for a shift at the Wednesday nights Food Bank Distribution (sign up in the church lobby), people are hungry year round and the Food bank can always use help.

🌹 HEART TO HEART 🌹

- 🌹 Audrey's daughter in law, Carol Brooks, is recovering from aneurism surgery in the Mazankowski Neurological suite. Thank you to Surgeon, Dr. Chow, and the dedicated and capable nursing staff, for saving her life.
- 🌹 Thank you to Cathy Loiselle who created and placed much- needed labels on the kitchen cupboards.
- 🌹 A Safety suggestion for this icy and unpredictable walking weather is to "walk like a penguin," to avoid a fall. Have someone walk you to your car rather than take a chance on getting hurt.
- 🌹 We continue to support Lynn Wolfe and family as Ed continues to be under care in the hospital. Please consider becoming a Compassionate Visitor to at least one church member who may feel isolated at this time. Contact Brian Kiely or Erica Deneve for information.
- 🌹 Sincere condolences and affection are sent to Sara McEwan on the death of her dear niece.
- 🌹 At our December 16 Sunday service at UCE, several members brought forth the names of their children, grand and great grandchildren to be honoured at our blessing of the children. Candles were lit and some tallow was poured over the large remembrance candle that has held the names of many children over the years.

🌹 "Our Mission is love, our race is humanity and our faith is in each other", Rev. Audrey Brooks 🌹

SOUND TECH TEAM

We're looking for people to join our small team who do the sound for Sunday services. You don't have to be a techie, just someone who pays attention to detail. And it isn't a major time commitment: you can still enjoy coffee hour after the service.

We will train you gently at your own pace. You will shadow a tech for a Sunday or two; then when you're ready, you'll take over on some Sundays. Current team members are Marg Booker, Kat Hartshorne, and me. If you're willing to give it a try, catch one of us in church, or email, call or text me. Bill Lee: billlee@ualberta.net, mobile 780-435-7477.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS

We are excited to have more committees and working groups meeting in the church all the time. Please remember that sometimes space can be limited. Please contact our Church Admin, Janet, at chadmin@uce.ca to book a space.

Thank you for helping. – Karen Bilida

- Kitchen: 1) Please put away your dishes. 2) Make sure the counters and tables are cleared and wiped down. 3) Mop up any spills, 4) empty full garbage and bring the bags to the dumpster. 4) Ensure all the doors to the kitchen are locked. 5) Make sure food is labeled and stored correctly.
- If you see a non-emergency problem, i.e. something that is broken or a spill not cleaned up, please follow these guidelines (if you are able): 1) Photograph the issue and email it to chadmin@uce.ca . 2) If it's a hazard please do your best to clean it safely 3) If it's something that will stain please attempt to clean it. 4) If it's broken, please ensure that it will not get damaged further or cause injury to anyone and notify the Administrator. Thank you for your vigilance! (All cleaning supplies you'll likely need are in the Caretaker's Room in the back hallway.)
- UCE is a scent-free zone. We have members, some of them small children, with severe allergies. - Brunch: Going for brunch after church is a UCE tradition. Want to join? Contact Marge Roche or Jennifer Hinchcliffe at church.
- Recycling: We don't have recycling pickup at the church, so we need help with taking blue bags home for home collection or to the Recycle Centre. The bags are in the kitchen and/or social hall
- Walls: Please do not use scotch tape on a painted wall. If you need a sign printed and posted in the church please contact the office, chadmin@uce.ca .
- Pop Cans: We raise money from returnable bottles, tetra packs etc. donated by members. Drop your contribution in the second storage room (the single door) in Keeler Hall.
- Security: If your committee or groups are meeting after Church hours, please make sure all the exit doors are locked before setting the alarm and leaving. The exits that need to be checked are Keeler Hall and the side door (on the same as the main doors, by the picnic table).
- UCE Equipment: from time to time, members and friends of UCE find themselves in need of certain tools or other items for the short term and would like to borrow them instead of purchasing. If you are someone who would like to use something that belongs to the UCE, please let the Church Administrator know that you need something and for how long. We hope to prevent additional costs to the church by not having to replace items that are "loaned out".

The Unitarian Church of Edmonton is a liberal, multi-generational, religious community. We celebrate a rich mosaic of free-thinking, spiritually-questing individuals joined in common support and action. We welcome diversity including diversity of beliefs from divine believers to humanists, from pagans to atheists and agnostics. We believe in the compassion of the human heart, the warmth of community, the pursuit of justice and the search of meaning in our lives.

We gather with gratitude on traditional Cree lands that are now a part of Treaty Six and shared by many nations. A treaty is an inheritance, a responsibility and a relationship. May we be good neighbours to one another, good stewards to our planet and good ancestors to our children.
