

September Theme: “What does it mean to be a people of Vision?”

September 2

“Ingathering”

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

As we transition from summer services, let’s enjoy getting together again and think a bit about the core elements of Unitarian Universalism. This will be a family service.

September 9

“Unitarian Vision: How Did We Get Here?”

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

Ours is a living faith that is always changing. Today let’s look at the journey through our philosophical history noting the pendulum swings from humanism to spirituality.

September 16

“UCE Vision Statement”

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

Continuing a month long look at vision, this morning we will consider a statement the congregation collectively approved a couple of years ago. It states how we see ourselves and where we hope to go.

September 23

“What Next?”

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

Let’s have a conversation this morning. Having looked at where we have come from, let’s look at how we might shape the years ahead.

September 30

“One Vision, Many Hearts”

Chorealis

Chorealis kicks off their 2018-19 season by looking at ways we might put UCE’s vision into practice. How can we best foster one shared vision while honouring the diversity of people and ideas we know makes our world richer?

Ministerial Musings

Getting back on track for the new church year, DRE Will Adair, Administrator Janet Polkovsky and I met for our first staff meeting of the year. It was good and productive. It was a chance to discuss plans and concerns as we look ahead.

Here are a few takeaways:

* We are creating a new Parent's Council to support our church school program. The idea is to invite all parents to participate in setting direction for the program in addition to having them help plan the odd social event and organize classroom volunteers. It is meant to be fun, and not onerous or something else to be crammed into busy lives.

Our goal is to work with our new Director of Religious Exploration; Will Adair to make sure the program is well supported and is headed in the directions families wish it to go. There are details of the first meeting elsewhere in this newsletter. I hope you will mark it down and attend.

* As in many congregations, our staff are also members, and they sometimes volunteer as well. That can be tricky, especially on Sunday mornings. It's hard to resist the temptation to 'do business' with them when it might be the only time you see them face to face. But our staff are entitled to their time for personal renewal and social connections. Please keep your church administration concerns out of the Sanctuary and out of Coffee Hour if possible. We have answering systems and emails and lots of ways to communicate. Thanks for being considerate.

*As for educational programming, look for details in the coming weeks of a course on UU History and Literature I will be offering as well as Erica DeNeve's training course for those interested in becoming supportive chaplains to members in need.

Here's to a good church year!

See you in Church,
Brian

Religion on Tap

You don't need to drink beer, just enjoy conversation. We will be restarting our series of monthly come as you are pub gatherings on Tuesday, September 18 at The Metro, 10250 106 Street at 7 p.m. These are informal gatherings where we socialize (anywhere from 3 to about 15 people) and have a religiously themed discussion that runs from 5 minutes to an hour depending on interest. Brian Kiely leads and all are welcome. We are open to suggestions of other quieter venues (so we can hear the conversation) if you know of a good one. Everyone (over 18) is welcome. Please go to the Facebook event page to be kept updated: <https://www.facebook.com/events/1624857477626108/>

A Very Generous Gift

Jane Parkinson had put a bequest for our church in her will, but recently she decided on a more fun way to thank us – send a generous cheque right now. It's the biggest single donation the Unitarian Church of Edmonton has had in many years.

Jane was a UCE member from the late 1970s until 2004, when her career as a law librarian caused her to move to Calgary. She's still in Calgary, now retired.

"The church was very helpful to me through some very difficult times in my life," Jane says, explaining why she has been so generous to UCE.

Our church was also a very special place for her son Ted Cunningham, who died of a sudden heart attack in 2010 at age 34. As a youth he was active in the UCE youth group, especially loving the sleepovers in the sanctuary. He took part in OWL training as well.

Jane remembers young Ted calling her from school one day, saying he was trying to write an essay about Unitarianism and was struggling to define it. His mom gave him her short definition: Freedom, reason and tolerance.

Health problems make it unlikely Jane will be able to visit our congregation again. We will hold you in our hearts, Jane.

Interviewed by Susan Ruttan

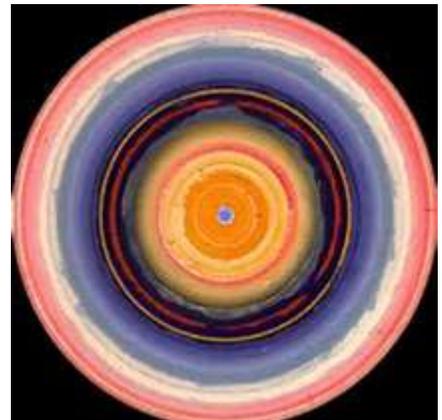

Renewal Journey

Late last year our church received a bequest of $1,000 from the late Joanne Graham. In her will, she asked that the money be spent on our labyrinth program and on our music program. We are now going to honour the first part of her bequest.

Please join us for Renewal Journey, an afternoon of reflection and centering, on Saturday, Oct. 13 between 1 pm and 4 pm at the church. This will be a drop-in event open to all at no charge.

Our Renewal Journey will invite people to walk our wonderful indoor labyrinth, and also to express themselves through art and writing at tables provided. There will be quiet music, including some live music.

Invitation to UCE Friends

If you are receiving our monthly Newsletter and are not yet a member of the church, but would like to be, please contact our Church Administrator, Janet Polkovsky by phone: (780) 454-8073, email at chadmin@uce.ca or on our website to start the process of becoming a fully-fledged member of our very vibrant community. We look forward to welcoming you.

Religious Exploration

Hello my name is William and I am the new Director of Religious Exploration starting this year. I have been a member of this church for a number of years and have been an active participant in many of the groups over the years including a couple of years in the RE program. We have a very exciting year coming up full with some great topics and fun activities. One of the most exciting parts is that the Congregation has approved budgeting for each of the classes to have a dedicated teacher/advisor. Currently we have Maria Jenkins returning to advise the Youth and Jesslyn Bell to be with the Pathfinders group. We are in need of someone for the for the Chalice Children's group which is made up of kindergarten to grade three children. If you would be interested in this position or know of someone let us know.

Change to Classes:

We will change from dividing the classes up by age to by school grade.

|------------------|------------|
| Sparks | Nursery |
| Flames | Pre-school |
| Chalice Children | K to 3 |
| Pathfinders | 4 to 6 |
| Youth Group | 7 and up |

Any questions or concerns please contact us by calling the main church line (780-454-8073) and leaving a message, or by e-mail at ucekids@uce.ca

Our Goals for the Year

We plan on having a great year! Brian and I have been working together to create some great programming that will relate to the services and with our new "Taking it Home" sheets that will be available as a handout and on the website you will be able to share more with what they are learning about. For the Youth we are hoping to start a monthly gathering. This maybe something simple like a movie and popcorn night at the church or maybe something more adventurous like visiting the Museum in November when the monthly theme is Memory or a Buddhist Temple in January when that is our theme.

Looking forward to our new church year, Will Adair, Director of Religious Exploration

TEACHER NEEDED

RE Teacher needed for our Chalice Children group. This group is for Grades K to 3. RE teacher (paid position) to lead the Sunday Chalice Class. Curriculum is provided. All supplies for the class will be prepared and supplied by DRE prior to each Sunday's class. Teaching is a wonderful way to increase your own knowledge of and connection to Unitarian Universalism and is one of the greatest gifts you can give to the congregation and our children. Come make a difference!

Please contact: William Adair, Director of Religious Exploration (ucekids@uce.ca, 780-454-8073)

Sharing Our Abundance

UCE donates half of the loose cash collected each Sunday to a different charity. For the month of September UCE is donating to Camp fyrefly, a summer camp and leadership retreat designed for lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, two-spirit, intersex, queer, and questioning youth, (LGBTQ2S+) and planned in part by a committee of the same youth it seeks to serve.

We'll be back!

After ten years and 40 completed profiles, the history project committee is bidding adieu for the time being.

The purpose of the committee, established in 2008, was to honour our UCE leaders and pioneers and to capture some history which would otherwise be lost. Twelve of those we highlighted are now deceased.

Please check our web site and read these rich stories about our UCE members. You will see how the values and principles of Unitarianism translated into meaningful day to day lives that helped build communities, big and small.

Thank you to Susan Ruttan, Christine Mowat, Audrey Brooks, Lillias Cowper, Jennifer Stewart and Alex Polkovsky for your amazing help in interviewing, writing, editing, designing, posting, donating and more. Thank you to the 40 interviewees who willingly shared their lives, ideas and thoughts with our community.

The History project has been a wonderful experience for those of us involved. We will be back if there is enough interest to refresh this initiative.

Thank you for letting me be a part of this project to celebrate those who have led the way for us.

Louise Charach, Chair of History Project Committee

Tenth Annual Genocide Memorial

The Tenth Annual Genocide Memorial was held on Sunday, July 15, at our church. The Memorial provides members of all ethnic groups and faiths an opportunity to reflect on planned violence aimed at the mass extinction of helpless men, women, and children as a function of war, ethnic cleansing, slavery, colonial appropriation of people and their lands, greed, gender bias, neglect, or political oppression. The program included poems, reflections, prayers, readings, and superb music provided by Gordon Ritchie, Erin Vandermolen-Pater, and the Soul Singers. In keeping with tradition, stones were placed in memory and witness. The ceremony, in turns solemn and upbeat, was followed by a delightful potluck and conversations in Keeler Hall.

Bill Lee has made the service available online at <https://youtu.be/aGBIgpqI2WI>

This event, held for the first time in our church, was organized by Audrey Brooks and supported by Kimberly Lang, members of the Social Justice Working Group, and many others. Over 100 people attended, including dozens who have never been to our church before. Holding the annual Genocide Memorial at the church highlights the role of our church in our larger community. It also represents a public and meaningful action in support of two key principles: the inherent worth and dignity of every person; and justice, equity, and compassion in human relations.

The Salvos Prelorenzoz Peace Awards

September 27, 2018 7pm at Edmonton City Hall

The Salvos Prelorenzoz Peace Awards honour Edmontonians committed to peace and non-violence who have not yet been previously honoured for their work.

This year's award goes to Rev. Audrey Brooks, founder of the Genocide Memorial Garden which just celebrated its 10th anniversary. She is also an active member of Edmonton's Raging Grannies, who will be performing for us this evening. Our keynote speaker will be Rev. Brian Kiely of the Unitarian Church of Edmonton. (Photo Credit: Paula E. Kirman)

End Poverty YEG (Edmonton) tweeted on August 22, 2018: "It is such a pleasure to introduce our new Co-Chairs, Cheryl Whiskeyjack and Michael Phair, who are leading our work by example. Tremendous thanks to Jane Alexander and Jeff Bisanz for their years-long support, and to all of our partners. Here's to the next phase of the work!" So happy to see the work that Jeff Bisanz (Chair of the UCE Social Justice committee) is doing in our community. Jeff received the UCE Charles Potter Award this April for his huge contributions to social causes outside the church. 🌹Heart to Heart🌹

🌹 On Saturday, August 25, a memorial service for Everett Hewitt was held at our church, with many friends and relatives from Canada and the United States in attendance. Everett was a very interesting person; it was a special experience to hear the many stories about his life, his sense of humour and many adventures.

🌹 During the summer, many pastoral visits were made. If you are interested in participating in bringing greetings and cheer to members who are not able to come to church, let Brian or Audrey know.

🌹 "Our mission is love, our race is humanity, our faith is in each other." Rev. Audrey Brooks

🌹 UCE friend Ruth Ruhnke is asking us to keep her in our thoughts while she works out immigration issues to allow her to return to Canada be reunited with her son and fiancé in Edmonton.

UCE is happy to be a drop off location for the Homeless Connect event on October 14, 2018 at the Shaw conference centre.

New and gently used Clothing can be dropped off Monday – Friday 9:30am-1pm Sunday 10:00am-Noon.

The mission of Homeless Connect Edmonton is to provide services that will create paths out of homelessness, build lasting partnerships, raise public awareness of homelessness in the community and provide a vehicle for community involvement in addressing the issue of homelessness. <http://www.homelessconnectyeg.com/about/>

All year round you can donate to the Bissell Centre: All items donated to our church green box in the foyer go to the Bissell Centre Thrift Shoppe on 88st &118 Ave. Also accepted is all bedding and linen (with the exception of cushions and pillows), small household items, CD's and videos but no books or tapes.

For further information contact Barbara Forbes 780 439 4553 or Rosemary Falconer 780 472 9287.

Working Hard in the Summer!

Taking a summer break from church is very much a part of the Unitarian Universalist tradition in Canada. However if you're a Grounds and Building volunteer, the summer is an ideal time to work on much needed repairs outdoors. Thank you to our hard working volunteers: Gaylord Madill, David Hagel, Art Breier and Alan Boyle (missing from these photos is Mike Keast).

Thank you to Sylvia Krogh for submitting these photographs.

CONGREGATIONAL COMPANIONS

Unitarians reject dogma and rituals that are restrictive and limiting. But some of the more traditional religious practices have their use. Take prayer, as an example. What if we could take the idea of prayer and remove all of the “problem stuff”? No beseeching or bargaining, no begging for grace or apologizing for sin. What might we be left with? Is there any part worth trying to save? Could the practice have meaning for us, especially those suffering emotional and spiritual pain? I believe it can. And that the effort will be rewarding and enriching for those who choose to participate.

We don't really have a role for a kind of 'chaplain' who could help with that in our church. Which makes sense, given that many of our congregants reject the traditional ideas of God and the practices that go along with those ideas. But I wondered, how could we modify this practice and the role to make it meaningful and relevant to our congregants today?

Our starting point on this journey is a name change. Both terms, prayer and chaplain, carry baggage. We need better terms that suit us. We have come up with Congregational Companions.

A Congregational Companion will serve as a support person for their fellow congregants. To actively, deeply listen to them, hold space for them, be empathetic to their issues and concerns. They will not be therapists. They will not be ministers. They will be companions, sharing their fellow congregants' journey...

If you are interested in participating in this program there will be training this fall starting in October. Feedback as to a preference for a weekend intensive vs a recurring evening class would be appreciated. Please speak with Erica De Neve (edeneve@shaw.ca) or Brian for more details.

CUC Press Release

The Canadian Unitarian Council released a press statement August 29, 2018 offering a comprehensive sex ed program in response to Ontario's decision to repeal the 2015 Health and Sex Education curriculum.

“The Canadian Unitarian Council (CUC) advocates for fact-based sexuality education, which is provided in many Unitarian congregations through its progressive Our Whole Lives (OWL) program.

The CUC believes that the Ontario government's decision to repeal the comprehensive 2015 Health and Sex Education curriculum and reinstate the curriculum from 1998 will leave children at risk and adversely impact schools' ability to create cultures of inclusion, safety and consent. Neither does it prepare students of all genders and sexual orientations to develop healthy, consensual relationships.” <https://cuc.ca/press/>

Westwood Unitarian FreeThinkers' Book Club

The FreeThinker Book club meets in the basement of the Westwood Unitarian Church at 7:00 PM on the last Wednesday of the month from Oct-March. The format varies but typically begins with a round table check-in and first reactions to the book. This is followed by a free ranging discussion, triggered by questions from other members.

All are welcome – atheists, humanists, agnostics, and theists and of course free thinkers!!

Oct. 24 Strange Gods: A Secular History of Conversion by Susan Jacoby

In a ground-breaking historical work that addresses religious conversion in the West from an uncompromisingly secular perspective, Susan Jacoby challenges the conventional narrative of conversion as a purely spiritual journey. From the transformation on the road to Damascus of the Jew Saul into the Christian evangelist Paul to a twenty-first-century “religious marketplace” in which half of Americans have changed faiths at least once, nothing has been more important in the struggle for reason than the right to believe in the God of one’s choice or to reject belief in God altogether.

Around Our Church (Updated)

If you see a non-emergency problem, i.e. something that is broken or a spill not cleaned up, please follow these guidelines (if you are able):

1. Photograph the issue and email it to the Office Administrator: chadmin@uce.ca including the date and time you first noticed or call the Office and leave a message if I'm not able to answer.
 2. If it's a hazard for falling or other injury, please do your best to clean it safely (there are cleaning supplies under the sinks and coffee nook cupboards and in the unlocked Caretaker's Room (in the back hallway).
 3. If it's something that will stain (i.e. marker scribbles on table), your early attempt to clean it may prevent it from being more difficult to remove later.
 4. If it's broken, please ensure that it will not get damaged further or cause injury to anyone and notify the Administrator. Thank you for your vigilance!
 5. Lastly, if you would like to make or suggest a change to the building or floor plan, please check first with the Administrator or our Property Maintenance Committee (see contact list on last page).
- UCE is a scent-free zone. We have members, some of them small children, with severe allergies. So avoid wearing any scents when you come to gatherings at the church – colognes, hair spray, etc. Also please remember when cleaning church property (tablecloths, counter tops, dishes, etc.) to use scent-free products.
 - Brunch: Going for brunch after church is a UCE tradition. Want to join? Contact Marge Roche or Jennifer Hinchcliffe at church.
 - Recycling: We don't have recycling pickup at the church, so we need help with taking blue bags home for home collection or to the Recycle Centre. The bags are in the kitchen and/or social hall
 - Walls: Please do not use scotch tape on a painted wall. If you need a sign printed and posted in the church please contact the office, chadmin@uce.ca.
 - Pop Cans: We raise money from returnable bottles, tetra packs etc. donated by members. Drop your contribution in the second storage room (the single door) in Keeler Hall.
 - Food: If you use our kitchen, clean it up afterward and don't leave any food behind. Public Health Regulations prohibit the storing of perishable food for more than one day
 - Security: If your committee or groups are meeting after Church hours, please make sure all the exit doors are locked before setting the alarm and leaving. The exits that need to be checked are Keeler Hall and the side door (on the same as the main doors, by the picnic table).

A Request from the Church Office

Please be mindful of the following when you come into the church office with requests: I am very happy to see you and to help you. However I ask that you please consider that I am often in the middle of something when you come in. This could include working with numbers, editing or doing other tasks that require my focused attention. When you come into the office, please check in with first and let me know that you have a request. Then give me a few minutes to complete what I am doing or to reorient my attention to you. Something simple like "Hi Janet, I need some help with something, do you have a minute?" would be great. I don't need long to give you my attention but I do need a few minutes to transition my focus to you in a clear and present manner.

Thank you to Sylvia Krogh for spotting this in the Victoria Unitarian Church Newsletter and thinking of me!

Changes to Office Hours

Starting September 2018, I would like to close the Church Office on Mondays and have nonpublic office hours where I can focus on intensive administrative tasks. From Tuesdays to Fridays I will be available through email, phone or in person to assist members, friends and the general public. Thank you for your understanding.

The Unitarian Church of Edmonton is a liberal, multi-generational, religious community. We celebrate a rich mosaic of free-thinking, spiritually-questing individuals joined in common support and action. We welcome diversity including diversity of beliefs from divine believers to humanists, from pagans to atheists and agnostics. We believe in the compassion of the human heart, the warmth of community, the pursuit of justice and the search of meaning in our lives.

We gather with gratitude on traditional Cree lands that are now a part of Treaty Six and shared by many nations. A treaty is an inheritance, a responsibility and a relationship. May we be good neighbours to one another, good stewards to our planet and good ancestors to our children.
