

The Edmonton Unitarian: June 2019, Vol 60.6

June 2

Flower Communion/ New Member Welcome

Rev. Brian J. Kiely and the Board of Trustees

Join in our annual celebration of our community and the coming summer. We ask you to bring a flower to share. These will be collected and arrayed on a common table, and later we will each pick a different flower to take with us. As well we will honour and recognize those who have joined our church in the past year.

June 9

Pride Service and Potluck

UCE Youth

The youth will be hosting a pride service to celebrate diversity and the value of all peoples. The service will be followed up with a potluck here at the church. Come share in our community on this meaningful weekend. Please we ask that if possible to include a note with any dish you bring if it is vegan/vegetarian, gluten free, etc. for those that may have dietary restrictions. Please share the invite with all those you know. There will be a sign-up sheet in the lobby for help with setup and cleanup; we really appreciate any help that can be provided.

June 16

Picnic Service

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

It's our annual picnic in the park across the street (if the weather agrees, otherwise we will meet in church). Bring some food to share and a portable lawn chair or blanket. We will have a short informal service around 11 a.m. followed by food and fellowship.

June 23

Summer Solstice

Ali Hammington

The Summer Solstice has arrived, the time of year when folks from Pagan traditions celebrate the power of the Sun, and declare their intentions for personal growth during the season of warmth and ease. Join the UCE Pagan Chalice Circle for this service honouring our 7th Principle, the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

June 30

Blessing of the Pets

Rev. Brian J. Kiely

Our last service of the regular church year welcomes in the animals that make our lives brighter and better. Bring your companion whether cat, dog, goldfish or whatever. (Pictures are okay too). We will acknowledge what they bring to us and bless each one individually.

Ministerial Musings

Sometimes people can be so focused on the particular that we lose sight of the larger picture. It is not always a good thing.

I am not sure exactly why the official Pride Week events were cancelled. Like many of you I have heard official stories and also rumours. In the end, it doesn't matter. I can't judge what happened, I simply don't have the facts. Pride events were cancelled and that makes me very sad.

Our congregation has been part of Pride for a very long time. I remember pushing my eldest daughter in her rainbow-festooned stroller 15 years ago. The girls called it the "Rainbow Parade" for the longest time. Along with Audrey Brooks and our Chorealis choir, I have sometimes been included in the Pride Sunday Service. It was always an honour.

I hope things come back, and that we remember that Pride is a celebration of diversity. Sure, there are always more issues to be resolved and more work to do, but I don't think that's a reason to stop celebrating what has been accomplished. The courageous story of the few people who gathered decades ago for that first, furtive two block march, some of them masked for self-protection, reminds me of just how far we have come. Watching the faces of people being so free and so happy while freely expressing themselves has always made me smile.

I don't know how it will all turn out, but it would be a shame if we didn't find some way to celebrate again in the future.

In the meantime, I am proud that our UCE Youth Group has stepped up and decided that they want to offer Pride service in the church on Sunday, June 9th. I will be there, dressed in a colourful manner and smiling, and maybe crying with pride.

See you in church
Brian

Board Update

Your UCE Board met on May 15, 2019. We welcomed new board members Kathy Stanley and Brandie Moller-Reid, who begin their official duties in June. The next board meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, June 19, 2019 at 7:15. If you wish to speak on a particular topic, kindly contact President Karen Mills one week prior to the meeting.

Summer Services at UCE

Every summer, we open up opportunities for members and friends of the Unitarian Church of Edmonton to lead Sunday church services. We need to fill about ten services in July and August. A service leader guide is provided to help you with all the core elements of a typical church service, but the topic and theme of the service is yours to choose and develop. Contact John Pater, johncpater@gmail.com or 780-619-6843, to sign up for one of the summer services; please provide your preferred date(s).

2019 Summer UCE Directory Update

There are a lot of new faces in the church and it's been a good while since the last Directory. It's time to update the current directory with our members' and friends' latest information. This new directory will be available to the Church membership and will be sent out by email attachment at a later date. Those that receive their newsletter by mail will have a copy mailed to them. A limited amount of paper copies will be made available from the office.

To update your contact information, you have three choices:

- You can fill out the web form on our website <http://www.uce.ca/membership-information-update/> the information will be sent to the Administrators' email; it will not be stored on the website.
- You will find a form attached to this month's newsletter. You may fill it out and return it to the Administrators' Office by email or paper copy.
- You can also request a form at the Welcome/Membership Desk on Sundays.

Religion on Tap

Religion on Tap is our monthly social/theological chat. It will be Tuesday, June 18th at 7 p.m. at Metro Billiards, 10250 106 Street at 7 p.m. These are informal gatherings where we socialize (anywhere from 3 to about 15 people) and have a religiously themed discussion that runs from 5 minutes to an hour depending on interest. Brian Kiely leads and all are welcome. Everyone (over 18) is welcome.

Chorealis News

What a wonderful year we have had under the amazing direction of our co-leaders Karen Mills and Gordon Ritchie! And the 8 church services that they orchestrated have been highlights for many of our congregation.

Once again, we joined the festivities for the Edmonton Vocal Minority Christmas party and then organized a successful Cabaret in March where we raised $1500. In April, we took our show on the road and performed to a large audience at Rosedale Estates. We concluded the year with a special potluck where we recognized not only our leaders but also celebrated the upcoming wedding of Gordon Ritchie and Robert Begg. Ruth Merriott created a wishing well for anyone to add contributions to celebrate the occasion.

To continue our connections, we are getting together for a barbecue on Thursday July 18th at the home of Marilyn and Jim Gaa. Their address is 9318 Edinboro Road (ph 780-432-7660). Bring something to barbecue, something to share, and whatever you like to drink on a summer evening. Also bring your own dishes and cutler and a lawn chair if you can. This event is open to anyone from the congregation who would like to join us.

We will be starting rehearsals again on Thursday September 5th and always welcome new singers.

Our Mammoth Garage Sale

Springtime in Alberta created havoc for our garage sale, but in spite of it, we succeeded in pulling off another exceptional fundraiser! Thanks so much for all your donations and all those of your friends and families. Now even our UCE renters are bringing their treasures and then making purchases. Susan Ruttan once again brought notices to the businesses in our neighbourhood. One of our renters Open Doors Learning Services had many of their students who are upgrading and/or improving their English come to shop.

It was busy from April 19th to the final cleanup on May 7th with many hands to organize, price, work the garage sale, and help with up clearing Keeler Hall. Those who pitched in for many hours were Rosemary Falconer, Susan Ruttan, Wendy Smith, Pauline Atwood, Shirley Edgar, Kathy Stanley, Sylvia Krogh, Allan Boyle, David and Paulette Hagel, Karen Mills, Audrey Brooks, Brenda Cottle, Lynn Wolff, Jolien Pauw, Marg Roche, Rosanne Kelly, Dorothy Keeler, Elaine Reynard and many others. A special thank you to my hardworking sister Donna Hamar who put in long hours and was there later than I on many days. I also appreciated the willing help of our administrator, Janet Polkovsky who was constantly being interrupted from her regular duties during the weeks of our preparations.

We have several people outside our church community who have logged countless hours for many years towards the success of our sale. They are Ruth Smith-Hill, Douglas Oakley, and Sandra Maygard. We very much appreciate their help.

Karen Bilida was responsible for advertising with revolving pictures on Kijiji for several days prior to and during the sale. Kudos to her and Scott Harrison for putting out and then picking up all the newly constructed signs they made last year. Most buyers come from those 2 methods of advertising, so we owe them a huge thank you! As well, they organized and managed the free day Sunday afternoon as well as the clean up on Monday.

We held a flash sale for a few hours the Saturday before our sale because we had so many donations and our tables were overflowing. We made $1000 in a few hours.

Clair Horne did pickups of bigger items with his truck. And workers were treated with food from Kathy Stanley, Donna Hamar, Wendy Smith, Elaine Reynard, Paulette, and Janet.

To serve our delicious hot-dogs and pop were Chefs Maurice Bourgoin (who braved the snow) on Friday and Brian Kiely and David Rae on Saturday.

Special recognition to our WH Alexander Award winners, the Wednesday crew who willingly helped with setup, cleanup and so many other jobs I managed to find for them.

Gaylord Madill kept us informed of the running total during the sale and then he and Edwina had the challenge of counting over $9700! Our sale also benefits other organizations. Edwina Madill took all the leftover vases to the gift shop at the Grey Nuns Hospital to be re-used for flower arrangements. Grant Harlton discovered that the Lion's Senior Centre was happy to take all our leftover books for their book sale so he delivered 2 full vans to them. The rest of the leftovers were picked up by Find which is a local Edmonton organization. It provides essential furnishings free of charge to individuals and families who are moving out of homelessness, and it also supplies low-cost, quality furniture and housewares for sale to the public.

The community gets involved in many ways. Shoppers say they wait eagerly for our sale each year because our prices are low and they often find treasures. On Friday morning, there were more than 20 people waiting for the doors to open at 8 am! The kids enjoy finding books and toys and many shoppers stop for a hot dog and pop.

A great effort, thanks to all!!

About a week after the sale, many of us got together at Donna's condo party room to celebrate the fruit of our labour and to plan next year's event. I have already started a box gathering next year's contributions. How about you?

Social Justice Working Group Update

On April 28th, the UCE Social Justice Committee presented a service to receive and honour the new Indigenous Spirituality banner which will hang in the sanctuary alongside the other banners representing all the faiths from which we take our teachings. The banner was designed by Bent Arrow Traditional Healing Society, and Elder Rose Wabasca was present to share some of her teachings with us. Afterwards, we held a Soup Sunday and shared food and conversation together,

The event was intended to include an outdoor pipe ceremony before the service, and a tent was purchased to provide shelter in case of rain. Unfortunately, the ceremony had to be cancelled due to heavy snow! While we regret missing out on the pipe ceremony, we are happy to report that the church now owns a 10 x 20 foot tent, which I'm sure will see plenty of use at future events.

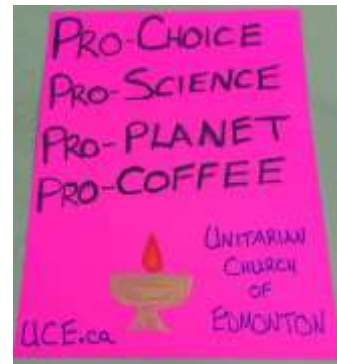

The Social Justice crew continues to operate the Food Bank hamper distribution on Wednesday nights, and we have been blessed with a wonderful crew of volunteers to help out! There is a sign-up sheet in the foyer for anyone who is interested in joining us, and we have tasks for every level of fitness.

Sunday Night Sidewalk Parties outside Hope Mission continue, and we attend on the 3rd Sunday of each month to bring food, clothing, water bottles and anything else we have to share with our less fortunate neighbours. Everyone is welcome to join us.

On May 9 members of UCE attended the Pro-Choice counter protest at the Alberta Legislature Grounds. There is another rally planned to defend Reproductive Rights on June 24th at 4:00 pm, please watch for more details on Facebook.

Unitarian and Universalists have been advocating for universal access to safe and inexpensive abortion services in Canada for more than forty years.

Affordable and accessible abortion and counselling services are available to some, but not to all Canadian women. The current situation is inequitable.

Welcome to UCE - An Accessible and Inclusive Place

We take pride in the easy access to our facility on many levels and we are always trying to improve our welcome.

No stairs to get in the building, no stairs to get into the Sanctuary, button-operated door at the front, accessible washrooms. Chairs in our Sanctuary are easily moved to accommodate multiple physical needs; portable audio receivers with headphones for any who need extra assistance, scent free; allergy aware.

In addition to our chairs in services we also have one or two meditation / activity tables which can be used by any person who needs some physical stimulation to help them listen.

We welcome people of all genders and identities and have signs posted inviting people to use the washroom that best suits them as well as a gender neutral washroom.

Social media allows for even more accessibility.

There are many people that can not physically make it to our building but we still want them to feel included in our community. Social media allows many people to be able to participate with us and keep up on UCE and UU news.

Changes to Facebook this year have made it very hard for pages to reach the people who have liked them, much less new folks.

We need your likes and comments to get Facebook to see our posts as important to their algorithm. Shares are great too; if you think your friends might appreciate seeing them.

We appreciate your participation, whatever form it takes. We don't have a huge budget for paying to get posts seen, so we count on you all to spread them.

Sharing Our Abundance

For the Month of June, we will be sharing with the George Spady Centre, an inner city agency which provides overnight shelter to 72 adults. They also have a 20 bed detox for adults under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Admission is immediate and offered on a 24 hour- 7 day a week basis.

A Reminder: thank you to those who add to Sunday's collection by using an envelope.

Should you have included your contact information once, all that is needed for our records after that is for you to have your name noted. In addition, a change of address would also be welcome should that occur.

In appreciation,

Edwina Madill, Head Teller

-  Congratulations and best wishes to Gordon Ritchie and Robert Begg on the celebration of their marriage which took place at UCE on Saturday, May 18th. May the sun shine on all your days.
-  On Sunday, May 19, Annabelle Bourgoin was remembered at a memorial service in her honour. A feisty woman of many talents, a gifted librarian with a special gift for encouraging students to read their way to success.
-  Welcome back to Gloria Krenbrenk who returned from a brief stay in hospital and is back doing exemplary volunteering for our beloved community by serving on the UCE board.
-  Congratulations are in order to Maria Jenkins who shared her beautiful soprano voice during the Sunday service last week. She was backed by singers from our youth group, who did an amazing job. (Nakai Ellis-Zvakavapano, Violet Slevin, Lily Kiely, Kadance Aske (Behind Lily K.), Ayla White, Elora Kiely, Lilly Aske) This was a debut for these singers, and we hope we get to hear more of their musical offerings!
-  Several UCE members attended the monthly food and conversation - sharing event at the Hope Mission on May 18th. 300 people were fed with donated food prepared by volunteers from several faith groups. Ali Hammington is our animator who encouraged newbie Luther to help distribute food, he ended up having a long conversation with a retired farmer. I think we have a new volunteer, thanks, Ali!
-  A “heads-up” invitation to UCE members and friends about the 11th annual Genocide Memorial Service which will be held here on Sunday, July 14. This memorial honors and witnesses the violent deaths of innocent people because of war, gender identity, race, religion, and appropriation of Indigenous lands. There will be speakers, a dedication of memorial stones, songs by the Soul Singers, and a feast afterwards. Invite any persons who wish to have a family or a country honored.
-  Watch for further announcements in the June Newsletter.
 -  “Our Mission is love, our race is humanity and our faith is in each other”, Rev. Audrey Brooks

CATCH A FRINGE PREVIEW AT UCE

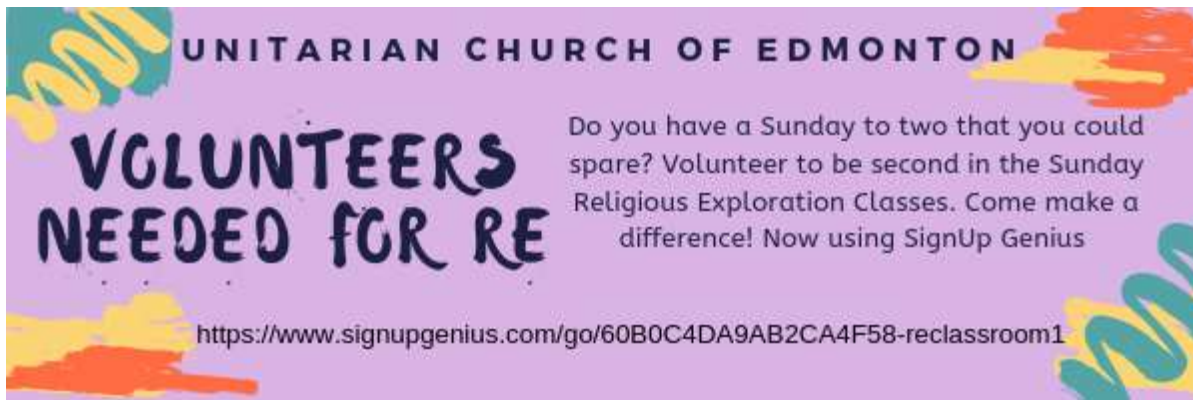

CanUdle Was a Hit

The youth went to CanUdle on the Victoria Day long weekend and from what I have heard a fun time was had by all. We had many tired people arrive back Monday evening with some crashing on the floor until everyone was ready to leave. Chorus, the young adult gathering that happens at the same time joined with the youth in a Bridging ceremony for the older youth. And luckily one of our former youth (Nathan V.P.) was there to participate and Maria was able to get a nice photo.

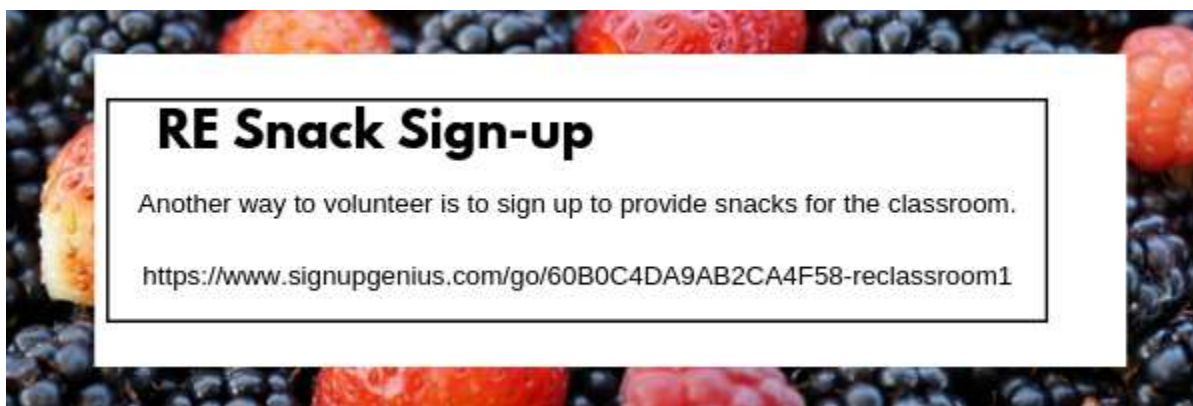

Camping in Drumheller August with the Calgary Unitarians

The Calgary Unitarians have invited us and Westwood to join them in Drumheller on the weekend of Aug. 16th to 18th at the River Grove Campground for their Family Campout. They have a few events planned and lots of free time with chances to meet new peoples and get to know each other. For more information you can reach me by email at ucekids@uce.ca or by phone at 780-454-5816.

Volunteer to be second in the Sunday Religious Exploration Classes. (The CUC safe practices states that there should always be two adults with any group of children or youth) Come make a difference! Now using SignUp Genius check out the link below.

Snacks can be simple things like carrot and celery sticks or assorted fruit and maybe some kind of no-sugar juice. Things to stay away are sugary or really processed food like cookies or chips. Also for allergy alert we ask for things with gluten, nuts, and dairy to be avoided or kept separately and labelled. If you would like to contribute but may not be able to bring a snack on one particular day you could give us a small cash donation and we can use it to up the stuff for snack. Please use the Signup Genius link to sign up for this as well. <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/60B0C4DA9AB2CA4F58-reclassroom1>

This exciting program features some indoor and outdoor activities. We will start right at 10:30 in class for about 15 to 25 min. and then we will head outside for the rest of the morning. We will be having variety of activities all geared toward learning about nature and its part in the interconnected web. If you think your young people may enjoy joining the fun on Sunday morning of the summer let us know.

For your young drama enthusiast!

A fun filled week of theatrical exercises based in the theme of "Nature". Children will draw at random a character that they will use during the week to examine and explore all the creatures in the forest, what the forest is, how these beings exist in the forest, and create a living story as their creature along with the other campers. The week finishes with a dramatic presentation about the life of the forest animals.

Summer Office Hours

This Spring UCE was successful in receiving the STEP grant for the Summer. Currently, a contract is being finalized with the successful candidate. The Church office hours will remain the same throughout the summer and this means the student will not be working on Sundays (the church will be opened by RE Director). The student will also be tasked with assisting with the RE Summer Camps and supervised by RE Director.

The Unitarian Church of Edmonton is a liberal, multi-generational, religious community. We celebrate a rich mosaic of free-thinking, spiritually-questing individuals joined in common support and action. We welcome diversity including diversity of beliefs from divine believers to humanists, from pagans to atheists and agnostics. We believe in the compassion of the human heart, the warmth of community, the pursuit of justice and the search of meaning in our lives.

We gather with gratitude on traditional Cree lands that are now a part of Treaty Six and shared by many nations. A treaty is an inheritance, a responsibility and a relationship. May we be good neighbours to one another, good stewards to our planet and good ancestors to our children.
