Land Acknowledgement

In accordance with our principles, we acknowledge with gratitude that we gather on traditional Cree lands that are part of Treaty Six and shared by many nations.

A treaty is an inheritance, a responsibility and a relationship. May we be good neighbours to one another, good stewards to our planet and good ancestors to our children.

February Services start at 10:30 am

Feb 1

Chorealis

Resilience: Taking the Long View Together

Resilience looks and feels different for everyone, but might there be some common elements? Let's look at three factors that may be key to developing resilience and preserving it when times get tough.

Feb 8

Rev. Morrison

Building Resilience the Buddhist Way

Please join us for the second in a five part series studying world religions. In this service we will explore the main tenets of Buddhism and how Buddhist practices can build resilience in us. Learning about non-attachment, meditation and the Four Noble Truths will make up part of this Buddhist exploration.

Stay After the Service: Second Sunday Potluck!

If you are attending New to UU, grab a plate of food and bring it to Classroom 2

Feb 15

Rev. Morrison

Bouncing Back: Handling the Curve Balls of Life Family Friendly Service

Are you attending Rev. Kiely's class after the service? Don't forget to bring a bag lunch! You can still register by emailing chadmin@uce.ca

Feb 22

Rev. Morrison

Why is Change So Hard?

Strategic Plan Conversation will also take place after the service.

Soul Matters small group meets after the service today in the library!

It's not the load that breaks you down, it's the way you carry it.

Minister's February Reflection

I learnt in high school that when a butterfly is struggling to get out of the cocoon and you cut the cocoon to help it out, the butterfly dies. You have to let the butterfly struggle, because the struggle forces blood into the wings, so they can spread them and fly. The same goes for us. The struggles we go through are necessary to make us strong enough to soar through life.

- Angelic Ain Ra

This month we are talking about resilience. The idea that we can go through a time of struggle and come out better on the other end is quite the metaphor for life, and also congregational life! However, the fact that we really can't be successful in life without the struggle seems kind of unfair in a way. Wouldn't it be nice if excellence could be achieved without the struggle? Probably not. I don't know about you, growth without struggle feels shallow to me, it would be hard to be grateful for the lessons learned and insights gained. In our team meetings we talk about policies and procedures, events and promotions, technology, music, and so much more. What we're actually doing in those meetings is learning to grow together. We struggle, we grow, we struggle again.

I have seen and experienced so much growth here at UCE. That means we have successfully worked through some tough things and emerged stronger.

Speaking of struggles: My son Matthew and his partner Kelsey have been struggling to start a family. It has been a difficult five years for them. So much hope and heartbreak. I am delighted to share that my youngest grandson was born on January 22nd. His name is Samuel Rudy Morrison and he has landed in a loving home with family who are over the moon in love with him. The struggle has been real, and they have persevered. The reward is so very huge and worth it! I will be meeting my new grandson on February 9th. I can hardly wait!

In peace,
Rev. Rosemary

February 2026

There are many streams that come together to financially support our church. Your annual donations are a very important stream that keeps our church afloat. Canvass is the time when we talk about your financial support of our church.

We all have a part to play in financially supporting our church. We are very fortunate that we have other income streams that pay for our building and facilities. That means that your donations are nearly all directed to the support of our programs and staff. When you pledge your financial support, it is directly linked to the program and staff budgets that I will prepare for our church AGM in May.

So, flow into the stream and join our river of support by completing a pledge form for the coming year. It takes just one minute. Do it now at this link.

UCE Many Streams Make a River Pledge Form

UCE's annual canvass runs from January through March each year and is the time when we talk about the financial support we provide to our church. I will be asking every member to pledge their support during this time. If you are a member then you need to return a pledge.

If you have questions about canvass, then follow this link to more resources on the canvass web site. I would also be happy to discuss your pledge with you. Come talk to me in church or call/email me at any time.

Thank you for your stream of support!

Board Business

by Lynne Turvey,
President

“Knights” of the Ministry Roundtable

Eleven UCE leaders gathered after the January 18 Sunday service to share ideas and information about programs and projects. They represented 15 teams and committees that underpin our UCE experience, and I would say they are true “knights” of our community, dedicated to service through shared ministry that gives life to this congregation.

Shared ministry might still be a foreign concept for some. According to a CUC definition, ministry is the act of serving. Shared ministry is what we do to serve our congregation and the broader community, individually and together. UCE’s shared ministry includes the minister, board, teams and committees, and many other congregational volunteers working in covenant toward a common vision. For shared ministry to work, we need good communication and coordination. The Roundtable gatherings help to meet that need.

The January 18 meeting was an opportunity to learn about the 2026/27 budget process from treasurer Andrew Mills, and to share funding needs and wishes with the group. We also heard from Karen Mills, representing the Governance Advisory Team (GAT), about the strategic planning process and the congregation’s essential role. Look for more details in this newsletter!

Among the many other plans and ideas shared were a:

- Choreal’s cabaret in March
- goods and services auction
- second 50/50 raffle
- volunteer fair in the fall
- telephone tree for connecting members and friends
- need for more Social Action Team members
- Feb. 8 New to UU session

Stay updated about these initiatives and others through these monthly newsletters and Friday emails.

Honour Our UCE Members

by Susan Ruttan,
Board Secretary

Two annual awards will be presented at the UCE annual general meeting on May 3:

The W.H. Alexander Award honours a member or members for extraordinary services provided to benefit the church community.

The Charles Potter Award for Community Engagement honours a member of our congregation who has made an outstanding volunteer contribution to communities outside our church, and whose work there shows exceptional commitment to UU principles and values.

Submit your nominations for these awards by March 31 to board secretary Susan Ruttan by email – ruttans@shaw.ca – or in writing through the church office. If you want a list of past winners, email Susan.

Rules:

- Nominations must be made by UCE members and must include reasons for the nomination.
- Members of the board may not submit nominations.
- People who have been staff members or members of the board within the preceding year are not eligible to receive the award.
- Past staff members and members of the board are eligible if the services for which they are recommended were not performed during the period when they held these special positions.
- There is no limit on the number of times a person may be nominated for, or win, the award.

To Our 50/50 Raffle Supporters!

A huge thanks to everyone who made our first 50/50 raffle a success. Your buying tickets and spreading the word resulted in a total jackpot of $2880, meaning $1440 will go to draw winner Brandie Moller-Reid. The other half will go to UCE to support our programs and events. - Karen Mills

◆ You Are the Missing Piece: Join the Strategic Plan Conversation on Feb 22

The Governance Advisory Team (GAT) has been busy! We have wrapped up Phase 1 of our strategic plan update, which involved a deep dive into data—from building usage and past goals to City of Edmonton growth trends and the evolution of other UU and non-UU congregations.

◆ We've Done the Research, Now We Need the "Heart"
Data tells us where we've been and what the world around us looks like, but it can't tell us what calls to your heart or what you want UCE to become in the next five years. To fill in the gaps, we need your stories, your questions, and your vision.

◆ We are inviting everyone—long-time members and brand-new attendees alike—to a congregational conversation.

◆ What to Expect

This won't be a long presentation of spreadsheets. Instead, we'll be hosting a dynamic workshop where you can:

- Hear the highlights of what we learned in Phase 1
- Brainstorm how UCE can best respond to the needs of our local community
- Identify which outstanding goals from the 2016 still matter and which new paths we should blaze

◆ Why Your Voice Matters

A strategic plan is only as strong as the people who live it out. Whether you're passionate about social justice, religious education, our physical building, or the way we do services, your perspective is vital to ensuring our plan truly reflects who we are and who we want to become.

◆ Please join us for lunch and a lively discussion as we build our future together.

— The Governance Advisory Team (Louise Charach, Lynne Turvey, Brandie Moller-Reid, Karen Mills)

Garage Sale!

Apr 30 to May 3

Yes! We are having another garage sale. This year's sale will once again be the first weekend in May.

What's different this year is that we will be accepting garage sale items starting right away. Bring your garage sale items* in on Sundays after church starting in February and bring them to the nursery. No large items yet please**; keep those until the week before the sale.

Then we are looking for volunteers to sort and price the garage sale items. Volunteers available in the daytime can come and help Tuesdays from 9:30 to noon. Volunteers available in the evenings can come on Thursdays from 6:30 to 9:00. We'll have a small team work away over the next few months rather than trying to do everything in the last few weeks before the sale.

If you are available to help with sorting and pricing share your contact information with Andrew. Each week he will send out an email saying if we have items to sort on Tue and Thu. Sometimes a little, sometimes a lot!

*Please do not donate clothes or computer equipment. Also, please do not donate items that are broken or missing important parts. If it doesn't work, please don't bring it.

**Please hold off on furniture, large sports equipment, or paintings. Bring them in the week before the sale from Sat Apr 26 to Tue Apr 28.

February Sharing Our Abundance: Canadian Unitarian Council

The CUC, as the national office, is a voice for our vibrant, liberal faith community, within the interfaith community in Canada, and within the international UU community. The Canadian Unitarian Council includes forty-one member congregations and emerging groups, from Halifax, Nova Scotia to Vancouver Island, British Columbia.

Want to Go for a Walk?

The walking group is continuing as weather permits, every Friday morning. We mostly do "out and back" walks and separate into faster and slower walkers, so you can walk at your own pace and distance. Contact Jon Littlefield at jon.littlefield@yahoo.com to be added to the email list.

GROWING IN SPIRIT: A DEEP DIVE INTO THE UU PRINCIPLES

Come spend some time starting in February with our Minister Emeritus, Rev. Brian Kiely as he helps us get to know the Eight Principles of Unitarian Universalism. Through open conversation and shared reflection, he'll guide us in exploring how these principles can actually support us in our everyday choices and the way we move through the world.

FIVE TWO HOUR SESSIONS

OUTLINE:

SESSION 1. HOW THE PRINCIPLES CAME TO BE: AN OVERVIEW AND FIRST PRINCIPLE DISCUSSION

SESSION 2. THE SECOND AND THIRD PRINCIPLES

SESSION 3. THE FOURTH AND FIFTH PRINCIPLES

SESSION 4. THE SIXTH AND SEVENTH PRINCIPLES

SESSION 5: THE EIGHT PRINCIPLE AND WRAP UP DISCUSSION .

SECOND SUNDAY

Potluck

All are welcome!
February 8

It doesn't have to be fancy or homemade or, if it's "been a week" - just bring yourself, bring a friend and bring your appetite.

This new potluck tradition will be all about good food and better company. Come for spiritual growth and stay for a feast! Let's make more memories and strengthen our community by breaking bread together every month.

We'd also love a few fresh volunteers to help with a quick clean-up afterward to keep the momentum going!

Join UUs across Canada on February 28th for a fun-filled fete as we launch a fabulous new hub for Canadian UUs to share ideas, inspiration and research. Think of it as an online magazine for learning about Canadian UU endeavours, successes, and reflections about what didn't go as well as hoped—and sharing your own, too!

Register today for this exciting online event and be the first to get updates and reminders.

UCE Telephone Tree

Are you, or do you know someone that would like a regular check in? Perhaps you're someone that loves to chat on the phone. The Pastoral Care Committee would like to improve the lives and health of UCE members by making sure no one is left feeling lonely and disconnected from our loving community. They are concerned that there are members and friends of UCE that are isolated and could use a phone call or text on a regular basis.

Yvonne Mireau has graciously agreed to coordinate this initiative. To register to receive a call or make a call, please fill out a Pastoral Care Team Request indicating your name, phone number, email address and state whether you would like to receive a call or if you would be willing to make a call or two per week.

The Pastoral Care Team deeply appreciates your willingness to participate in this important new initiative.

Right Relations Reflections

Thoughts on Forgiveness

Please forgive me.

I forgive you.

Thank you.

I love you.

These four simple statements are powerful tools for improving your relationships and your life.

- IRA BYOCK

We must develop and maintain the capacity to forgive. The one who is devoid of the power to forgive is devoid of the power to love.

Forgiveness is not an occasional act. It is a permanent attitude.

- MARTIN LUTHER KING JR

Shaping Our CommUUnity

Vision:

We open doors to all seekers of spiritual growth and nurture positive change for a just and healthy world.

Mission:

UCE Mission is to inspire social justice by questioning the status quo, engaging community and inviting all to the table.

We do this by providing an intentionally inclusive home to:

- nurture spiritual growth and transformation
- foster learning opportunities and outreach experiences
- welcome all age groups
- support action for social justice
- be guided by the principles and sources of Unitarian Universalism

UCE Covenant of Right Relations:

With love as our guide, we pledge to create a beloved community of peace and compassion. We trust our ability to work through conflict. As members and friends of UCE, we agree to:

- Honour and respect diversity in values and beliefs as a source of communal strength
- Be truthful, kind and open minded
- Assume good intent and goodwill
- Listen with open hearts and speak with care even when it is uncomfortable
- Talk to, not about, others
- Accept responsibility for our individual acts
- Address conflict promptly and ask for help when conflict is too difficult
- Be steadfast in support of our community in times of disagreement
- Share the ministry of the congregation through our gifts of time, talent and money
- Express encouragement and appreciation for the gifts of others

The Principles and Sources of our Religious Faith

UU congregations affirm and promote eight principles, which we hold as strong values and moral guides. As Rev. Barbara Wells ten Hove explains, “The principles are not dogma or doctrine, but rather a guide for those of us who choose to join and participate in UU religious communities.”

Our Eight Principles

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
- Individual and communal action that accountably dismantles racism and systemic barriers to full inclusion in ourselves and our institutions.

Our Six Sources

- Direct experience of that transcending mystery and wonder, affirmed in all cultures, which moves us to a renewal of the spirit and an openness to the forces which create and uphold life;
- Words and deeds of prophetic people which challenge us to confront powers and structures of evil with justice, compassion, and the transforming power of love;
- Wisdom from the world’s religions which inspires us in our ethical and spiritual life;
- Jewish and Christian teachings which call us to respond to God’s love by loving our neighbours as ourselves;
- Humanist teachings which counsel us to heed the guidance of reason and the results of science, and warn us against idolatries of the mind and spirit;
- Spiritual teachings of Earth-centred traditions which celebrate the sacred circle of life and instruct us to live in harmony with the rhythms of nature.

Peace Within the Ordinary

No one can ignore chaos and have inner peace for the world is so much in us and with us
If I lived in medieval times I'd understand why women lived in cloisters behind walls away from the world's brutality got on their knees on cold stone praying for god in perpetuity to descend and bring judgment or some kind of amelioration to their diseased and war polluted narrow minded beastly world

There has to be peace in the ordinary to find grace within bits of simplicity like the smell of fresh bread in the oven chickens scratching in the barn yard maybe a lake with fish to fish knowing your children are okay
you sit outside in the sunset hearing birds talking in the trees your heart at peace just now because there is a note of truth in viewing each day as a miracle
- Audrey Brooks
